An Introduction to The University of Bridgeport

Its History:

The University of Bridgeport saw its beginning in November, 1927 when the late President E. Everett Cortright and Dr. Alfred Civilion Fones were granted a charter for the newly formed Junior College of Connecticut. As such it was the first junior college chartered in the eleven northeastern states. This early step and the continued success of the College determined the development of the present University of Bridgeport.

On the Twentieth Anniversary of the Junior College of Connecticut, in 1947, the Governor of Connecticut chartered the institution as a four-year university with authority to grant the baccalaureate degree. During the growth that followed, the Junior College of Connecticut was retained, and the College of Arts and Science and the College of Business Administration were established, followed soon after by the College of Nursing, the College of Education, and the College of Engineering. The University continued to expand, merging with the Weylister Secretarial Junior College of Milford. This School and the Fones School of Dental Hygiene(which at its inception in 1949 was the only such school in Connecticut and the second in New England) became divisions of the Junior College of Connecticut.

By 1950 the University had moved all of its operations from its Fairfield Avenue location to the campus at Seaside Park. There it occupied twenty-two acres of choice land, had an enrollment of almost 3500 students, including a number of international students, and a faculty of 183 men and women. The University is a school destined to continued growth. In 1953 Arnold College merged with the University of Bridgeport and was incorporated into the College of Education. Arnold, founded in 1886 was the oldest co-educational school of physical education in the United States.

As It Is Today:

The University continues its expansion both in terms of enrollment and physical facilities. The selective enrollment is now more than 8500 students, comprised of 5000 full-time and 3500 part-time students. The faculty currently consists of over 300 full-time and 125 part-time members who teach a maximum of twelve semester hours per week. A portion of the males living on campus will soon be housed in a new men's dormitory being constructed on University Avenue across the street from the new Humanities Center also under construction.

As so many other schools have experienced in the past few years, The University of Bridgeport has experienced and will most certainly continue to experience student-faculty-administration revisions of policy. These too, although they are sometimes disruptive, are indications of continued growth. The University of Bridgeport, ever striving to gain academic excellence, endeavors to provide an atmosphere where the student may realize his capacities as a rational person.

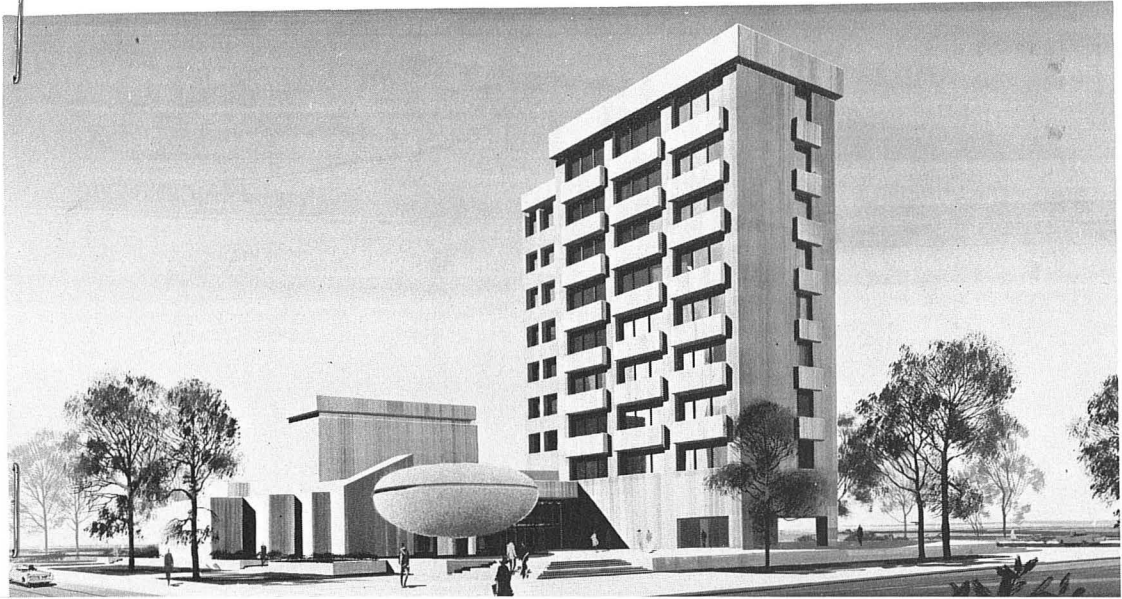

VIEW OF THE UNIVERSITY OF BRIDGEPORT CAMPUS

The University of Bridgeport will construct a 10-story residence hall for 468 women at a cost of approximately $3,000,000. Construction will begin in the spring of 1969 with occupancy scheduled for Sept., 1970. "Cluster" units of eight double and one single room grouped around a lounge, study area and bathroom facilities in each of the three wings on each floor will provide the students with a more intimate living area. The building will be financed through loans including $2,000,000 made available from the U.S. Dept. of Housing and Urban Development. The firm of Chas. Wellington Walker Associates is architect for the project.

Architect's rendering of the $4.6 million Bernhard Arts-Humanities Center now under construction. Occupancy is scheduled for Spring, 1970.

Fraternities found their way onto the campus of the University of Bridgeport in the latter part of the 1940's. At this time, the University of Bridgeport was just a junior college with an enrollment of approximately 3000 students. The fraternities that were founded were made up of World War II veterans, who joined together for a common cause.

The first fraternity introduced to the University of Bridgeport, we are proud to say, was Theta Sigma, and running a close second was Sigma Phi Alpha. Shortly after, other local fraternities established themselves to help the growth and prosperity of the University of Bridgeport.

The fraternities on this campus helped to establish the Student Council, sports, newspaper, and many other various organizations essential to construct a university. The members of Theta Sigma were the leading men to organize such structures.

Up until recently, physical hazing was the method used for pledging in all fraternities. Again, Theta Sigma excels in changing the entire system, and turns to a constructive means of pledgeship.

Today, there are about 400 Greeks at the University of Bridgeport in nine fraternities and six sororities. The Greek community is a very strong and earnest society with leaders in every facet of college life.

Theta Sigma, the first fraternity formed on campus, is proud of the traditions it has kept since its establishment on October 4, 1947. These include the Annual Christmas Party for the Crippled Children's Workshop, the Reunion Weekends for its alumni, and the annual Playboy Dance which has gained national recognition and is deemed one of the most successful of its kind.

Our early efforts led to the establishment of football on campus, Student Council, an Inter-Fraternity Council, a school newspaper, and a yearbook.

We were, moreover, the undisputed leaders in the fund raising campaign for a new Alumni Hall and the only fraternity to whom a room has been dedicated.

The close bonds of fellowship developed in the fraternity is seen by the substantial number of brothers who remain active after graduation.

UNIVERSITY OF BRIDGEPORT

BRIDGEPORT, CONNECTICUT 06602

VICE PRESIDENT FOR DEVELOPMENT

203 - 384-0711

August 12, 1970

Mr. Edward J. Madison
Administrative Secretary
Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity
24 W. William Street
Delaware, Ohio 43015

Dear Sir:

It gives me great pleasure to personally recommend to the Grand Council of Alpha Sigma Phi the installation of Theta Sigma Fraternity as an affiliate chapter.

I have been associated with Theta Sigma for a number of years and have always been amazed by the leadership and influence that they have on our campus. Theta Sigma has long been the leading fraternity at the University of Bridgeport. Their efforts have assisted crippled children, faculty members, indigent children and administrators. Their involvement in the community and on campus has earned the fraternity a great deal of respect.

I therefore, recommend, without reservation, that Theta Sigma be inducted as an affiliate of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Yours sincerely,

John K. Martin
Assistant to the Vice President for Development

Dear Mr. Madison:

It has been brought to my attention that Theta Sigma Fraternity, a local fraternity of the University of Bridgeport, has petitioned for membership within Alpha Sigma Phi national fraternity as an affiliate chapter. It is my pleasure at this time to recommend Theta Sigma for this affiliation and to request your favorable consideration of their petition.

My contact with Theta Sigma and its brothers extends back over a number of years. As the first president of Theta Sigma and later organizer for the Alumni Association, I have been in touch with many brothers; men who were leaders on campus and later became eminently successful in their professional endeavors. If the value of a fraternity can be measured by the success of its members, then Theta Sigma can be counted with the leading fraternities in the country.

Theta Sigma Fraternity over the years has proven to be of great service to the University of Bridgeport. When the University was first chartered in 1947, Theta Sigma provided the leadership to form a student council, an honor society, a highly successful intercollegiate athletic program, and at all times fostered a social environment befitting the needs of returning veterans and the entire student body.

The brothers of Theta Sigma have maintained this involvement in the affairs of the University and their members can still be counted among the leaders on campus. Because of their attitude and fellowship, they have gained and held the respect of the administrators and fellow students on campus. Theta Sigma is the only fraternity that can boast of having the Chancellor and the President of the University of Bridgeport as honorary members.

All in all, I firmly believe that Theta Sigma can add to the effectiveness and well-known reputation of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Sincerely yours,

John J. Cox

Dear Sir:

I take great pride in writing this letter of recommendation for the brothers of Theta Sigma Fraternity. The induction of Theta Sigma as a chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity, can only be an asset to the reputation of your fraternity.

I have been in contact with the brothers of Theta Sigma for a number of years, and vouching for the character of such an organization is a very easy task. The brothers have a pride that surpasses all, and which excels them as leaders and men who work for the betterment of the University. Their involvement in the community has gained the respect of many and shows their fellowship as men deserving of such respect.

I take pleasure in recommending that Theta Sigma be initiated as a chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Yours sincerely,

Dear Sir:

It is a personal honor and I take great pleasure in recommending to the brothers of Alpha Sigma Phi, the initiation of Theta Sigma Fraternity as a chapter of your national fraternity.

As a member of the faculty of the University of Bridgeport for a number of years, I have been in very close contact with Theta Sigma and its brothers. In the time I have been in touch with these men, I have always been amazed by their leadership and influence on the campus of the University of Bridgeport.

Theta Sigma has always shown remarkable leadership in establishing an environment befitting the needs of a successful campus. Because of this, they have attained the respect of the faculty, administration and students of the University of Bridgeport.

Considering all, I believe that Theta Sigma can be a great asset to the reputation and extension of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Sincerely yours,
