MARTIN R. ANDREWS.

MARTIN R. ANDREWS, a descendant of the early Andrews settlers in Connecticut, was born at Meigs, in Morgan County, Ohio, April 6, 1842. He graduated from the McConelsville High School, in 1859, and ten years later from Marietta College.

Various obstacles prevented him from going from high school to college. At first he was employed as a teacher in a district school in his native county—then came nearly four years of active military service in the Civil War, in the 62d Regiment, Ohio Volunteer Infantry and in the United States Signal Corps. He also served for a short time as Adjutant of the 43d Bat. O. V. M. In the Signal Corps he was able to pursue part of his college course so that he was able to receive his degree at Marietta College after less than two years of actual attendance.

From 1870 to 1879 he served as Superintendent of Schools in Steubenville, Ohio. From 1879 to 1910 he has served Marietta College—first as Principal of the Academy, later as Professor of Political Science. In July, 1910, he was retired upon the Carnegie Fund as Emeritus Professor of Political Science.

For many years Brother Andrews was a regular contributor to the Ohio Educational Monthly. Afterwards in partnership with Professor Henry G. Williams he edited and published the Ohio Teacher. In 1903 he sold his share to Mr. Williams.

For many years Professor Andrews was an active member of associations of teachers, being one of the founders of the Eastern Ohio Teachers' Association, and he frequently gave instruction at institutes.

For the last eight years he has been a trustee of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical Society by the appointment of successive Governors of the State, and much of his time is now devoted to the study of local history. Although he has retired from the active teaching force he continues to reside at Marietta and to have keen interest in all that concerns Marietta College and Delta Chapter.

MARIETTA COLLEGE.

HE city of Marietta, O., has a picturesque and historic setting at the junction of the beautiful Ohio and the Muskingum ("the Hudson of the West") rivers at the point where the first white settlers in the "Northwest Territory" established their homes shortly after the close of the Revolution. Long before the coming of the white man, the natural advantages of the location had attracted there large bands of those aboriginies whom we call, for lack of a better name, the "Mound Builders." Within the limits of the fair city and within a stone's throw of Marietta College stands a large and perfectly preserved monument of the industry and manner of life of these men.

To this delightful and interesting location years after the passing of the Mound Builders, General Rufus Putnam, nephew of General Israel Putnam, in 1788 led his band of settlers across the Ohio in search of a suitable place for establishing for themselves new homes in the very vanguard of civilization. The settlers, attracted as well by the natural beauty of its location, as by the promise of the land for bringing forth future fruits, set about the task of hewing from the virgin forest shelters that were to become homes, which increased in numbers as time went by until they formed a number sufficient to become a city.

Situated on a slight eminence in the heart of this beautiful little city of elms and homes where the dirt and noise of the manufactory are conspicuously absent, the Marietta College campus has a commanding position. The many grand old trees in which the grounds abound afford a back ground that delights the eye and charms the imagination.

These pioneers who formed the Ohio Company were New Englanders who had been trained to believe in the importance of education. In their grant of land they had secured the gift from the government of certain portions for school purposes, and of two townships, for a university. Within a few months of their arrival they had provided for a school in the old Fort. In 1797, nine years after their arrival and only two years after the close of the Indian War, which had taxed the resources and consumed the energies of the little company, a meeting was held and an organization effected to build a school for higher education. This plan was carried out. Muskingum Academy was erected and opened for instruction in 1800. This was the first classical school in the Northwest Territory. David Putnam, a graduate of Yale in the class of 1793, was secured as the first principal. He was a cousin of General Rufus Putnam, the leader of the pioneers. From 1800 onward, with possibly a few brief gaps, the Muskingum Academy was in constant use for more than thirty years under various principals.

In 1830, Rev. Luther G. Bingham, then pastor of the First Congregational Church, impressed with the opportunity offered here, established the "Institute of Education" with four departments—the two higher being known as the High School and the Ladies' Seminary. He used the Muskingum Academy for one of his departments and secured other buildings for the others. He soon began planning the erection of a College building. Two years later a Board of Trustees was organized and on December 17, 1832, a charter was secured from the state for the "Marietta Collegiate Institute and Western Teachers' Seminary." In the fall of 1833 the collegiate work was begun in the new building erected for the purpose on the present campus and used first for all purposes and then for a dormitory, until removed in 1905 to make way for the Library. The same trustees who governed this Collegiate Institute applied for a new charter with enlarged powers in 1835 and formed the first Board of Trustees of Marietta College.

In taking the date 1835 as the beginning of the college, President I.

W. Andrews was following a strict and conservative construction of the name College. Marietta College did not have full collegiate powers until 1835, but in a very important sense it began long before in these earlier institutions. It has surely as much right to look back to the year 1797 and the founding of Muskingum Academy as its origin, as has Yale University to quote the year 1708 and the School at Saybrook.

As we round out the first decade of this new century we are glad to pause and look backward over these 75 years of college life, and do honor to those who laid the foundations and built upon them. Beginning with 1838 when the first class graduated there has not failed to be a graduating class each year. The total number of graduates is 961, of whom 884 are men and 77 women. Over 600 of these are still living. The oldest living graduate of the college is Charles H. Goddard, of Marietta, of the class of 1843; and only three others survive of the classes before 1850. From 1850 onward every year has still a living representative.

It is rather remarkable that there have been but six Presidents of the college during these 75 years, as follows:

Rev. Joel Harvey Linsley, D. D., 1835-1846, eleven years; Rev. Henry Smith, D. D., LL. D., 1846-1855, nine years; Rev. Israel Ward Andrews, D. D., LL.D., 1855-1885, thirty years; Hon. John Eaton, Ph. D., LL. D., 1885-1891, six years; Rev. John Dilson Simpson, D. D., LL. D., 1892-1896, four years; Rev. Alfred Tyler Perry, D. D., 1900-1910, ten years.

For one year after the departure of President Eaton, Professor Thomas D. Biscoe acted as president; and for the four years 1896 to 1900, Professor Joseph Chamberlin, then Dean of the college, successfully performed the duties of the President.

The most notable fact regarding the college is the long service of President Andrews, who, coming here in 1838, served continuously for 50 years as Professor and President. He taught every class in the college, except the first, that of 1838, up to the class of 1888. His personality too was a dominant one in shaping the institution. To him more than to any other is due its loyalty to high scholastic standards and insistence upon thoroughly scholarly work which has given the College such an enviable reputation in educational circles. Truly the foundations were well and securely laid, and we can be proud of the entire history of the college.

There are in all departments of the college 450 students, of whom about 200 are candidates for degrees. Of these about one-third are young women although the institution has been co-educational in nature only since 1897. The college has always been small, but the standard of its work has always been high. The degree it confers has a recognized merit that far excels that of many larger and better known institutions. The degrees of A. B. and A. M. are conferred in course with LL. D. as an honorary degree.

The undergraduate life of the college is like that of most of the eastern colleges, differing in a very few respects. Baseball, football, track and aquatic sports are the chief amusements for the outdoor season with basketball to while away the winter's months. In football the college excels. The uncertain seasons handicap both baseball and track work.

Eastern in customs, the college is western in its democracy. A conservative method for higher culture and a strict class room obligation allows it to prosper and foster a free, unadulterated student spirit in a good intellectual atmosphere. The college affords a truly common home for the rich and poor alike. Many times it has been demonstrated that a man working his way through college is as likely to become president of his class, captain of the football team, or the head of the student body as is the son of a trust magnate. Every man mingles with his neighbor and comes to know and appreciate his better qualities.

There are three men's fraternities in the college, Alpha Sigma Phi, Delta Upsilon and Alpha Diagama. the latter a local one of long standing whose members are known as "the Digs." A chapter of Phi Gamma Delta became defunct a few years ago. There are two sororities of comparatively recent origin, both of which seem to be flourishing, the Alpha Nu Sigma and the Beta Theta. Both are local.

Besides the fraternities the college maintains three literary societies, two musical clubs and many other minor organizations. The Phi Beta Kappa Chapter was established in 1860 and proof of its high rank may be had from the fact that its standards of admission are the same as those maintained by the Harvard Chapter.

The aim of the college is the all-around man, and the cultured gentleman properly equipped for good and efficient citizenship. This is the out-put of the college. When this is attained the greater ambitions of the individual can be satisfied in a large university.

GLENVER MCCONNELL, Marietta '11.

THE FOURTH ANNUAL CONVENTION.

ALTHOUGH the first session of the Convention had been set for 10 o'clock in the morning of Thursday, June 17, it was not until 2 o'clock in the afternoon that the first business was taken up, the morning session having been postponed by common consent as the delegates from several of the chapters had not arrived while the others found the Marietta College Commencement exercises then in progress sufficiently interesting to merit their attention for the morning.

At 2 o'clock G. S. P. Albert Blakeslee White, (Marietta '78), former governor of West Virginia, called the Convention to order at Delta's Chapter House. Brother J. O. Wagner, (Z), was chosen to act as secretary of the Convention in the absence of G. S. Lee V. McCabe, (H), of Chicago, Ill., who was unable to attend the Convention.

G. S. P. White on behalf of the active and alumni members of Delta Chapter delivered a ringing address of welcome to the visiting delegates and brothers who were present. He touched upon the ancient and honorable record of Delta Chapter and the part she has played in keeping lit the lamp of Alpha Sigma Phi through so long a period of years. In the happy coincidence resulting from the fact that Delta Chapter was entertaining the Fourth Annual Convention of the Fraternity at the same time she was celebrating the 50th anniversary of her establishment he found grounds for many happy felicitations.

Brother H. D. Widger (A), on behalf of the delegates made a fitting response to the address of welcome.

The secretary reported the credentials of the following delegates filed in proper form: Brothers E. M. Waterbury and H. D. Widger, Alpha; Kenner McConnell, L. H. Wharton and H. L. Meister, Delta; J. O. Wagner, G. W. Oaks and H. A. Hall, Zeta; J. D. Hood, Eta; E. D. Green, Theta; G. W. Griffiths, R. R. King, L. V. Spenser, G. P. Hogg and M. A. Slocum, Iota; G. E. Worthington, Kappa, and W. E. Beyers, Lambda.

On motion the chair appointed the following committees to which business coming under their respective titles was assigned for consideration and report:

Ritual—H. D. Widger (A), L. H. Wharton (Δ), R. R. King (I).

Publications—E. M. Waterbury (A), M. A. Slocum (I), and J. O. Wagner (Z). Emblems—G. W. Griffiths (I), W. E. Beyers (A), and Kenner McConnell (A). By-laws—G. E. Worthington (K), L. V. Spencer (I), and C. C. Hoyt (A). Recommendations—E. D. Green (Θ), J. D. Hood (H), and H. L. Meister (A). A recess of one hour was taken to permit the committees to prepare partial reports for presentation to the Convention.

At 4:15 o'clock the session was reconvened and the business was taken up in earnest continuing through the next two days. The Ritual Committee's report as accepted will be sent to the several chapters in a manner it cannot be reported here. In general it may be said the changes were few and slight. Those made are aimed to produce a greater uniformity in the use of the ritual than has been possible in the past because of varying local conditions which conflicted. Brothers G. E. Worthington (K), L. V. Spencer (I), and H. D. Widger (A^N) were appointed a committee to prepare changes in Scene I of the ritual to be presented for the consideration of the Convention next year. The committee will prepare an alternative scene for the use of chapters whose local conditions make it necessary that the present scene be modified. It will, of course, retain all the more essential features of the present scene although the setting will be somewhat different.

The Committee on Publications reported in favor of the issuance of a Fraternity Directory, a Fraternity History and recommended that the Editor and Business Manager of The Tomahawk should be elected annually at the National Conventions instead of being appointed by the Grand Prudential Committee as has been the case under the temporary arrangement. The Grand Corresponding Secretary was instructed to issue as often as once in every three years a Fraternity Directory which should contain the names and addresses of members cataloged by chapters and years, alphabetically and geographically. The first issue of the directory will be made this fall. The G. C. S. was also instructed to bring forth as soon as possible a history of the Fraternity from its founding down to the present time. This history will be issued early in September.

FRIDAY'S SESSIONS.

After the transaction of considerable routine business and the discussion of the report of the Committee on Emblems, the report was laid on the table and an adjournment taken at 5:15 o'clock until Friday morning when the sessions were resumed at 9 o'clock with Brother E. M. Waterbury (A), in the chair, G. S. P. White having been called unexpectedly to Parkersburg, W. Va., by business shortly before the session opened. The receiving of the reports of the various grand officers was made a special order of business for the morning in order that their recommendations might be referred to the proper committees for consideration. The reports were uniformly most gratifying, those of G. J. P. Wayne M. Musgrave and G. E. George W. Hunter, being especially so.

The report of the Ritual Committee was taken up for further consideration. The G. J. P. was given power, within his discretion, to permit chapters to use an approved substitute for Scene I during the present year when in his opinion the situation demanded it.

The report of the Committee on Emblems recommending the adoption of an official hat band was voted down, the opinion prevailing among the majority of the delegates that the Convention should not be called upon to legislate concerning every fad or passing whim which appeals for the moment to the undergraduates of this or that chapter, especially when custom has already given the stamp of uniformity to the practice in the institutions where these are followed. The red rose was voted the official Fraternity flower in preference to the pansy. The coat of arms recommended by the committee from among several designs submitted was adopted with a slight change. The Tomahawk will give a reproduction of the coat of arms in its October issue, hence no description will be attempted now.

A by-law was adopted compelling every active member to wear upon his vest or shirt over his heart his badge at all times when dressed. Another by-law provided for the election of an Alumni Board to consist of three members serving for one, two and three years respectively and thereafter for terms of three years each, the election to fill the vacancies being held at the National Convention from a list of candidates recommended by the Board members themselves. This body will superintend and direct the organization of all alumni chapters. Later the Convention selected Brother William J. Follett, (Marietta '79), of Boston, Mass., to hold office for three years, Brother Thomas H. Kelley, (Marietta '74), of Cincinnati, O., for two years, and Brother Arthur H. Boettcher, (Wisconsin '09), of Chicago, Ill., for one year.

A by-law adopted provided for the election of The Tomahawk Editor and The Tomahawk Business Manager annually at the National Convention. Another provides for the holding of quiz classes for the benefit of initiates to be followed by an examination covering the history of the Fraternity, its ritual, the meanings of its symbols and the contents of its constitutions and by-laws (local and national). Each initiate will be required to pass this examination within 30 days after his admission to the Fraternity.

At the Friday afternoon session the Convention voted to increase the annual dues paid by the chapters to the grand chapter to $25 a year from $15. It was voted that the expenses of the G. J. P. and the Editor of The Tomahawk incident to the attendance of these officers at the National Conventions should be paid by the Grand Chapter.

The G. S. P. was authorized to appoint a committee made up of alumni members to devise a plan for creating a sinking fund to be used in aiding new chapters in establishing themselves properly in their own homes. This committee is expected to report to the next National Convention with a matured plan.

The recommendation of the G. J. P. that the several chapters supply to each initiate a copy of the Fraternity History and a copy of the directory was given the endorsement of the Convention, although the decision was left to the discretion of the chapters. The Convention also recommended that each chapter should appoint a committee to cooperate with the faculty in maintaining the scholarship rank of its members at a satisfactory standard.

The G. J. P. was authorized to have bound volumes of The Tomahawk, Fraternity History and other publications placed in the libraries of the institutions where Alpha Sigma Phi has or has had chapters. The same officer was directed to have "A Brotherhood Imperial," the stirring old Sig. marching song incorporated in the revised edition of the Song Book which will be published this fall.

Brothers G. W. Griffiths (I), J. D. Hood (H), and E. D. Green (G), were appointed a special committee to procure shingles or certificates of membership for use by such chapters of the Fraternity as desire them after October 1. A hailing sign was adopted in accordance with the expressed wish of several of the chapters. A resolution was passed directing that the H. C. S. of each chapter forward to the G. C. S. on the first of October and the first of March of each year a complete roster of his chapter, noting thereon the date and reason for the departure of any brother who has severed his connection with the institution in the interim between reports. The Convention recommended that the custom of the corresponding secretaries of each chapter exchanging letters through the year telling of the work of the chapter and giving valuable suggestions be encouraged.

All grand officers are given by a change in the Constitution one vote in the National Convention after they have retired from office, provided they were alumni members of the Fraternity during the incumbency of their office.

The election of the following officers to serve during the ensuing year completed the business of the Friday afternoon session:

G. S. P., Albert Blakeslee White, (Marietta '78), Parkersburg, W. Va., G. J. P., Wayne Montgomery Musgrave, (Yale '09 G. L.), Cambridge, Mass.; G. S., Joseph Douglas Hood, (Illinois '10), Chicago, Ill., G. C. S., Edwin Morey Waterbury, (Yale '10), Corning, N. Y.; G. E., George William Hunter, Williamstown, W. Va.; G. M., Earl Delery Green, Detroit, Mich. Business Manager of The Tomahawk, Wayne M. Musgrave; National Editor of The Tomahawk, Edwin M. Waterbury.

SATURDAY'S SESSIONS.

Saturday morning after being in session only a few minutes the Convention took a recess at 11 o'clock until 2 o'clock in the afternoon to permit the Grand Secretary to get the minutes in proper form for approval by the Convention. At the afternoon session the election of the members of the Alumni Board, already noted elsewhere, took place. A vote of thanks was extended to Brother Musgrave who was completing his third term as G. J. P., for his excellent service given the Fraternity during this time. A similar motion was carried thanking Brother Waterbury for his services during one term as G. S. and two as G. C. S.

The Grand Prudential Committee was authorized to fix the date and place for holding the next National Convention.

The Marietta whistle was designated as that to be used by the chapters instead of the newer "Illinois whistle."

Delta Chapter was given a rousing vote of thanks for her royal entertainment of the delegates and the innumerable kindnesses shown them.

With Brother E. M. Waterbury acting as G. S. P., and Brother E. D. Green as G. M. the grand officers elect were installed in accordance with the ritual.

The Convention adjourned sine die at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon after the reading and approval of the minutes of the Convention.

The following brothers were in attendance at the Conventions though not present as delegates: Frank M. Copeland, Newton, Mass.; Rev. Dr. R. R. Davies, Vergennes, Vt.; Rev. Spencer E. Evans, Terryville, Conn.; Sheldon C. Gilman, Marietta, Ohio; J. Garland Hanmer, Jr., 320 Forret Street, New York City; E. W. Patterson, Greenfield, O.; E. M. THE SOCIAL SIDE OF THE CONVENTION.

Never did a bunch of Sigs. have a better time together than those who attended the Convention this year. Despite the distracting influences incident to the celebration of Marietta's "Old Home Week," the presence in the city of many distinguished guests including President Taft and Governor Harmon of Ohio, and the many functions which formed a part of their visit, every Sig. in Marietta—and Sigs. had gathered from all the nooks and corners of the land—yet not one of the good things planned for his entertainment by the Delta boys pass without his presence. And such a program of good times! There were so many things to do that were pleasurable during "play time" that the delegates came late and rubbing their eyes to the Convention sessions for work. Delta Chapter certainly provided as fine a program for the entertainment of the brothers as is likely to be enjoyed at any Convention for years to come.

THE SIG. BUST.

The annual "Sig. Bust"—for many years a feature of Commencement Week at Marietta—this year was the opening function of the gathering of Sigs. back to do Delta honor on her 50th anniversary. The Bust took place in the banquet hall of the Marietta Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday night, June 14. There 70 or more Sig. alumni back for class reunions this year, so that 90 Sigs., loyal and true sat down to the sumptuous repast prepared by Caterer Pfaff. It was 6 o'clock when the guests sat down to such a lark as only Sigs. can have.

G. S. P. Albert B. White of Parkersburg, W. Va., presided as toastmaster, his reminiscences and witticisms adding much to the good humor of the evening. Brother Oscar Hundley, (Marietta '76), Judge of the United States Court at Birmingham, Ala.; Brother William J. Follett, (Marietta '79), of Boston, Mass.; Rev. Brother R. R. Davies, (Marietta '72), of Vergennes, Vt.; Brother George W. Hunter, (Marietta '86), of Williamstown, W. Va., and Brother Tasker E. Bosworth, (Marietta '69), of Marietta, O., made responses. Letters of greeting were read from Brother Charles P. Taft, (Yale '64), and Brother Charles K. Newton, (Marietta '63), Commander of the Ohio G. A. R., and other brothers who were unable to be present.

During the banquet $1,320 was subscribed for a fund being raised to remove the indebtedness on Delta's Chapter House. Brother Samuel E. Smith, (Marietta '85), of Manasha, Wis., has offered to be one of five others paying equal shares to entirely wipe out the debt.

The Convention headquarters were established at The Norwood Hotel Wednesday afternoon, the delegates and visitors from other chapters having commenced to arrive in large numbers. Wednesday evening Delta Chapter kept open house for her alumni members and those of the visitors who had arrived, the informal smoker continuing until midnight.

THE BANQUET.

Thursday night came Delta's Fiftieth Anniversary Banquet served at The Norwood Hotel. Preceding this there was a Sig. procession participated in by more than 100 Sigs. in gowns and cowls each bearing an old time "lantern of Diogenes" in his right hand. From the chapter house which faces the campus the brothers moved through the campus where President Perry of Marietta College was holding his annual reception and thence in single file through the principal streets of the city to the hotel in silence absolute, affording a spectacle, slow, solemn and impressive. The local press in commenting on the procession the next day spoke of it as "the most impressive ceremony of the week" abounding in ceremonial.

Inside the banquet room of the hotel the lanterns were left to adorn the tables and the robes laid aside while the Brothers turned their attention to the feast before them to discuss the following menu:

MENU

Grape Fruit
Beef Bouillon en Tasse
Salted Almonds	Spanish Olives
Boiled Fish
French Potatoes	Sliced Cucumbers
Sirloin of Beef, Mushroom Sauce
Candied Sweet Potatoes	Patties	Asparagus Tips
Roman Punch
Chicken Salad
Wafers
Neapolitan Cream	Cake
Cheese
Toasted Water Crackers
Demi Tasse
Cigars	Cigarettes
Alpha Sigma Phi Punch

Each course of the banquet was followed by a stirring Sig. song sung with a spirit which made the welkin ring and ring again. The music was furnished by the Parkersburg Orchestra. G. S. P. Albert B. White, (Marietta '78), again presided as toastmaster in his characteristic manner. The following was the toast list:

Toastmaster—Hon. A. B. White, Δ '78, Parkersburg, W. Va.

Welcome.....	Lloyd H. Wharton, Δ '10, Belpre, O.
Response.....	F. M. Copeland, Δ '75, Boston, Mass.
The Old Gal.....	Rev. J. Garland Hamner, Δ '81, New York City.
The New Chapter.....	Edwin M. Waterbury, Δ '10, Corning, N. Y.
Response.....	William E. Beyers, Δ '11, Broadwell, O.
Our Fraternity.....	Tasker B. Bosworth, Δ '69, Marietta, O.
The Alumni.....	Hon. Alfred D. Follett, Δ '76, Marietta, O.
Sig. Girls.....	W. Edson Detlor, Δ '06, Marietta, O.

Impromptu responses were made by Brothers E. D. Green (Θ), G. W. Griffiths (I), J. O. Wagner (Z), J. H. Hood (H), G. E. Worthington (K), William J. Follett, (Marietta '79), of Boston, Mass., Rev. Charles Little, (Marietta '67), of Wabash, Ind., and Charles K. Reppert, (Marietta '63), of Allegheny, Pa.

The toasts were uniformly good—some serious, some light, but all optimistic and enjoyable. Not a brother left the banquet without taking with him a truer appreciation of the Fraternity, its men and its spirit, than he brought with him when he entered.

THE CONVENTION DANCE.

The Convention Ball was given at the Parkersburg Country Club. To this the majority of the guests were carried by special electric cars although many made the seven mile run by auto or in carriages. The guests were received by Professor and Mrs. H. L. Coar, Professor and Mrs. E. S. Merriam, Professor and Mrs. E. E. Wolfe, all of Marietta, Mr. and Mrs. George William Hunter of Williamstown, W. Va., Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Roserer of Tulsa, Okla., Mrs. Albert Blakesless White, Mrs. R. C. Hoblitzel and Miss White of Parkersburg, W. Va.

The grand march was started just before 10 o'clock. It was led by Edwin M. Waterbury, dancing with Miss Jessie Follett of Marietta, O., and assisted by Mr. and Mrs. George William Hunter of Williamstown, W. Va.

Parkers' Orchestra of Columbus, O., furnished the music for the dance program of twenty-one numbers and eight extras which followed. The music could not be too highly complimented by the guests. Between the numbers the wide, covered porches surrounding the ball room on three sides attracted many of the dancers to the wings, easy chairs and cosey corners to be found there.

At 1 o'clock supper was served in the banquet hall and in the reception rooms of the club. Again at 5 o'clock in the morning coffee and hot rolls comprised a "dawn breakfast" served the guests in the reception rooms—after more than an hour of daylight dancing. Three more numbers brought the ball to a close just before 6 o'clock, the guests reaching Marietta homeward bound just after 7 o'clock in the morning.

Saturday afternoon after the Convention had finally adjourned the delegates were taken in canoes and launches for a ride up the beautiful Muskingum River. In the evening they were entertained with a smoker at the Delta Chapter House which was on a par with the other delightful events of the week.

LOUIS H. BRISTOL.

Louis H. Bristol, (Yale '59), died at his home in New Haven, Conn., July 20. He was born in New Haven, March 3, 1839 and came from a family long prominent in New Haven. He received his preliminary education at General Russell's school and entered Yale with the class of 1859. He was a member of Skull and Bones. After his graduation he studied law and was admitted the New Haven County bar and began the practice of law with his father. In 1879 with his younger brother, John W. Bristol and Judge Henry Stoddard he formed a law partnership know as Bristol, Stoddard & Bristol. Although in the later years of his life Brother Bristol seldom appeared in court, few lawyers were more widely known throughout the state of Connecticut. He was counsel for Yale University, one of the trustees of the Union Trust Company, a director of the New Haven National Bank. Besides he was a director in several New Haven manufacturing corporations. He was a member of the University Club of New York, the Graduate, Quinnipiac and Country Clubs of New Haven. Mr. Bristol was a man of wide reading and general culture. He took an absorbing interest in the gathering of rare books. He gathered together a library which was one of the keen enjoyments of his life. His love for books brought him membership in the Grolier Club of New York. His funeral was held July 22, Brothers Oliver S. White and Roger S. White, both of New Haven, being among the pall bearers.

THE debt that the Fraternity owes to Delta Chapter is one that can never be repaid. To her fortitude, tenacity and fidelity alone can be attributed the fact that Alpha Sigma Phi is today anything more than a fond memory of the older generation of her sons. For more than 40 years Delta, deprived of the aid, sympathy and encouragement of her sister chapters, kept aflame the lights of Sigma Phi and kept aglow in the hearts of her loyal sons the fires of the Brotherhood. At times beset with difficulties, she has always met them steadfastly, firmly and loyally with the result that we find her celebrating her 50th anniversary this year in all the vigor, spirit and fire of youth. Fifty years is a long time in the life of any man, but let us hope that it marks but the mere infancy of Delta, a sort of first birthday, so to speak. We wish her many happy returns of the day.

The Fraternity's Debt to Delta.

THE Fourth Annual Convention will not be long remembered because of the importance of the work it accomplished—former conventions have accomplished much more in the way of epoch making legislation—but it has every reason to contemplate its work with pleasure. A great amount of minor legislation was brought before the Convention, and a considerable part of it enacted into law. Perhaps, however, in the light of future years the greatest value of the work of this convention may be seen to have been on the negative side—the prevention of radical and hastily prepared legislation. At any rate, it is certain that the Convention was more conservative than any of its predecessors have been. This is evidenced by the fact that but one attempt was made to change the Constitution in any particular whereas at former conventions this document has seemingly been the object of attack for the concentrated wisdom of all the delegates. In the constructive side the Convention wrought much that is or will be of importance. The creation of an Alumni Board to take up the supervision of the work of organization of the alumni chapters is an act of the Convention which is expected to produce important results. The provision for an alumni committee to prepare plans for a sinking fund to be used in aid of new chapters engaged in securing their own homes is another promising piece of legislation. The placing of The Tomahawk upon its proper basis as the exponent of the Fraternity, and the authorization of the issuance periodically of Fraternity Directory, are pieces of legislation the future effect of which as a means in solidifying and binding together the scattered Brothers of the Fraternity must be great. More recognition is to be given the national officers for their services both while in office and afterwards, the Convention decided. This seems, on the whole, a wise step though it has been somewhat open to question not on the grounds of the desert in individual cases, but on the ground of its advisability as a permanent policy. Unquestionably it will make lighter the burden of some of these officers who not only give many, many hours of valuable time during the year to work of the Fraternity without recompense of any kind, but who also in the past have been obliged to incur a considerable expense as a condition of attendance upon the National Conventions where by reason of their closer knowledge of Fraternity work and problems their services have been most valuable. The provision for relieving them of the financial hardship involved may encourage a continued interest in the work of the Fraternity as active workers longer than could possibly have endured under the former arrangements, and if this proves true the legislation will have justified itself. Past Grand Officers are to be given a vote at the conventions as a means of keeping alive their interest in the Fraternity's work.

THE action of the National Convention in according its support to the move being made all over the land among fraternity men to better the scholarship standing of the average fraternity man is one that readily commends itself to the Fraternity. Several chapters had already taken up this problem of their own initiative. Under a system devised at Cornell, for instance, each of the underclassmen in the chapter is placed under the direct charge of an upperclassman who sees to it not only that his charge's scholarship stand is kept above reproach, but who also advises him in other problems occurring in his college life. An underclassman whose stand is not satisfactory is denied many privileges until such time as his rank improves to the point where his advisor consents that he may enjoy them again. As the plan has behind it the moral support of a strong sentiment in the chapter it works to perfection. The Illinois chapter has a committee of three which confers regularly with a faculty committee on scholarship in regard to the grade of college work its members are doing. Chapter sentiment does the rest. The Convention recommended the adoption by every chapter of some plan for maintaining the scholarship of its members, though it wisely left the details of the plan to be worked out by the chapters in the manner best suited to local conditions. In these days when Fraternities are more and more coming to be judged by the kind of men they turn out it certainly behooves every chapter to turn its serious attention to this question of scholarship.

ALPHA CHAPTER, YALE UNIVERSITY

NEW HAVEN, CONN.

Brother Lloyd O. Mayer, '12, is spending the summer abroad with his parents.

Brother Arthur Floyd VanDyck left recently for Panama on an expedition engaged in work with the wireless telegraph.

Brother William N. Sparhawk, '11 S., returned from the Yale Forestry Camp in Florida to receive his degree at Commencement.

Brother James Justin Palmer on account of sickness was unable to take the final examinations in the Law School this June.

Brother Gustav Adolph Reimann has secured employment for the summer with the Southern New England Telephone Company in New Haven.

Brother Henry Elisha Trowbridge has secured a position in the Assistant Engineer's Office of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company.

Brother Wesley B. Dickson won first prize and Brother Ralph M. Timberlake a second prize in the annual Bible reading contest in the Divinity School.

Brother Fidardo Reuben Serri, '11, one of Yale's representatives in the Yale-Harvard debate this spring was recently elected president of the Yale Debating Association.

Brother James Beirne Sweeney was captain of the Law School baseball team which won the interclass series this year. Brother Fidardo Reuben Serri pitched for the 1911 team.

Brother MacDonald played the cornet and Brother Campbell a flute in the University Orchestra which inaugurated the series of open air concerts on the campus this spring.

Brother John L. Stivers, '10 L., was one of four men in the Yale Law School to receive a fellowship degree in the Yale Kent Club. The degree is conferred for excellence in debate.

Brother Howard DeF. Widger, '10, was one of the winners of a Townsend premium in the annual Senior oratorical contest. Brother Widger expects to enter the Columbia Law School next year.

Brother Edward Buckingham Hine was elected president of the Yale Dining Club at the last election. Brother Hine is also an enthusiastic member and holds an official position in the Yale Aero Club.

During Commencement Week Alpha Chapter kept "open house" for all returning graduates. A special committee had charge of the arrangements. Many of the older Alpha men who were back for class reunions visited the Chapter Rooms..

Alpha this year departed from the usual method of having all the brothers sit for a group picture and each one sat for an individual picture, the grouping being left to the photographer with the result that a much better picture was obtained than in former years and a larger percentage of the brothers' pictures appear in the group.

The regular election of officers on the last Monday in May resulted in the election of the following for next year. H. S. P., Howard D. Atkins, '11; H. J. P., Edward P. Hine, '11 S.; H. E. Gilbert W. Campbell, '11 T. S.; H. S., Edward Hegel, '11 S.; H. C. S., William Naumburg, Jr., '11 S.; H. M., LeRoy L. Duncan, '11 L.; H. C., Arthur F. VanDyck, '11; Glen M. Comstock, '11 S., and Cleveland J. Rice, '11 L. S., were elected members of the Prudential Committee.

The following Alpha brothers received degrees at the Commencement held June 22: F. C. Brewer, E. C. MacArthur, G. M. Russell, E. M. Waterbury, H. D. Widger and G. C. Wilson, Bachelors of Arts; Charles A. Sating, C. R. Newell, C. A. Knah, C. A. Burleson, Bachelors of Philosophy; J. D. MacKay, J. L. Stivers, M. J. Quinn, J. B. Sweeney, F. F. Coeller, W. J. Kennedy, Bachelors of Law; C. L. Furculow, C. J. Gade, J. C. Maloney, G. E. Thielcke, Doctors of Medicine; Ralph E. Myers, W. B. Lipphardt, Masters of Arts; W. L. Fliedner, Master of Law; W. N. Sparhawk, Master of Forestry.

On Saturday evening, June 11, the chapter inaugurated a new occasion "Junior Night," which well deserves to become an annual event in the chapter life. This occasion was the entertainment by the Juniors of those members about to have their names inscribed on the roll of Alumni. The spirit of the evening was most fraternal. After refreshments, each Senior was called upon for a toast, Brother Howard Atkins, '11, acting as toastmaster. The speeches were entirely informal and opportunity was thereby given for many words of sage advice to the younger members, nor was there lacking a bit of humor now and then. The Chapter Quartette rendered several selections and Brothers Comstock and Hine were encored for their mandolin and banjo duet. The Seniors recommended the program as the best possible for the last meeting night.

Alpha Chapter held its annual spring dance in Harmonie Hall on the evening of May 6. The hall was artistically decorated with palms, banners and colored streamers, and with music by Odenkirchen's Orchestra, better conditions for an enjoyable occasion could not have been provided. The program consisted of a grand march followed by twenty dances with three extras. Refreshments were served during the intermission which followed the tenth dance. The following brothers served as dance committee: Charles Allen Burleson, 10 S.; John Charles Maloney, 10 M.; Ralph Emerson Myers, '09; James Beirne Sweeney, '10 L. S.; John Lawrence Stivers, '10 L. S., chairman. The patronesses were: Mrs. F. J. Chatterton, Mrs. C. E. Comstock, Mrs. Robert Jordan, Mrs. H. H. Nettleton, Mrs. A. Sattig, Mrs. E. M. Seeley, Mrs. F. H. Waldron, Jr. The dance this spring was one of the best ever given by the chapter and great credit is due the committee for its arrangement and entire success in every particular. Handsome souvenir dance orders consisting of a stone colored leather card case bearing the Fraternity Seal were given the guests.

This spring witnessed a revival of the old Alpha's interest in dramatics. During the Easter vacation a self-elected dramatic association combined their efforts with the regular entertainment committee and arranged an evening's program of fun. About two weeks of rehearsal made Bank's "A Courtship Under Difficulties," ready for presentation with Brothers Burleson and Reiman taking the parts of the rival lovers, Brother Widger as the charming young hostess and Brother Wilson playing Mary, a red-haired Irish maid. A stage was erected in one corner of the hall and at 8:30 o'clock the curtain was rung up. Brother Comstock began the program with a mandolin selection. Brother "Tommy" Atkins followed with several of Kipling's stirring poems and Brother Sattig was at his best in a bass solo. Then followed a formal presentation and acceptance of Brother Squires' oil painting of the chapter's anniversary parade which precedes the giving out of the elections each year. The next number was the effort of the dramatic association. Your correspondent would require a special column under dramatics to treat the performance properly. We can only say here that Flora blushed, Mary misunderstood, Dunquene scowled and Zim conquered, quite in the manner of professionals. The encores after the fall of the curtain fully warranted the success of these efforts in the future.

DELTA CHAPTER, MARIETTA COLLEGE

MARIETTA, OHIO.

Delta Chapter closed the year with a very busy meeting June 9. All the arrangements were thoroughly worked out for the grand celebration of her 50th anniversary and the rousing National Convention which was to follow.

Delta Chapter lost three men by graduation in June, Lloyd H. Wharton, John Brickwede and Arthur Ellis. Brother Wharton will be employed in the National Supply Company's office in Parkersburg, W. Va. Brother Brickwede will enter a medical college. Brother Ellis is employed in the automobile works in Akron, Ohio.

The Junior Sigs. were credited with a good share of the responsibility in the Junior prank which caused the entire class to be expelled for one week but this blame could not well attach to them. "The Junior Suspender" which followed, however, was issued almost entirely by Sig. talent and its originality and witicism entitle it to a place in the chapter scrap-book.

The examination season proved quite exciting as usual and while very busy with fraternity work at the time all the brothers succeeded in establishing a little better record. At the close of the examinations an all-night jubilee was held by the members at the Chapter House and Sig. songs, college songs and yells intermingled with a few blasts from trumpets filled the air until the college clock struck 6 o'clock Saturday morning.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing term, commencing September 14: H. S. P., Kenner McConnell; H. J. P., Walter T. Brown; H. S., Frank R. Atwater; H. M., Glenver McConnell; H. E., Taylor L. Smith; H. C. S., Thomas E. Esker; H. S. C., Paul K. Hood; H. P., Carl C. Hoyt. The two members of the Prudential Committee chosen are Brothers Kimes and Knapp, and for Grand Committeeman Brother Carl Hoyt.

The Commencement week program was the most completely filled that ever took place at Marietta. Both President Taft and Governor Harmon of Ohio received degrees. Delta Sigs were in evidence as usual. Sig. brothers sang in the Glee Club concert, two played in the band and two had parts in the A-tempo Club concert. Brothers Hoyt and King received Junior honors in Rhetoric. Brother Smith secured honors in the Sophomore class; Brother Atwater, second honors in the Freshman class; Brother Brickwede besides receiving honors in Biology was elected a member of Phi Beta Kappa. Brother T. Edward Esker presided at the bureau of information and he was a sworn "cop" in President Taft's body guard.

GLENVER McCONNELL, '11.

ZETA CHAPTER, OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

COLUMBUS, OHIO.

Brother Cosgray, who leaves us this year is leader of the University Orchestra.

Brothers Wagner and Cosgray were chosen members of Eta Kappa Nu, an electrical engineering society, this year.

In the social world Zeta is winning a place at Ohio State University. Several very successful dancing parties have been held this year. Smokers have been held throughout the year at frequent intervals to which prospective pledges were invited.

Again the examinations have been thrust upon us like a rain cloud in a clear sky. There could be no more fitting time for Zeta Chapter to institute a sort of retrospective examination to determine just how well she has acquitted herself as one of the new born of Alpha Sigma Phi. We will furnish the data and you may make your own conclusions.

As to scholarship, although we can boast of no large bills for gas consumed after midnight, we graduate this year several men who stand at the head of their various departments. It will be our aim to keep the standard high in this direction for we wish to see men go out who will do honor to our Fraternity.

In addition to the Athletic honors Brothers Hall, Ehrman, Millious and Lev-ering are members of the Sphinx, a society whose members are chosen from the Junior class each year. The members are chosen on "Link" day in an impressive ceremony on the campus. One must be considered as a representative man of the university to be a member of this society.

Moral standing we consider another very important phase of fraternity life. Contrary to the old perverted maxim "College laws broken every night," we manage to leave at least a few inviolate. It is not well to indulge in comparisons for as Shakespeare says, "Comparisons are odious." But nevertheless we can well claim a place in the first rank of the Greek world at Ohio State as far as this branch of our text is concerned.

Last but not least we are confident of a high grade in the athletic test. At the present time we have eight varsity "O" men. We claim the captains of two successful track teams, Brothers Levering of 1909 and Millious of 1910. Brother Ehrman has been elected captain of the basketball team for next season as a result of his fast work on the team in the past year. On the gridiron Brother Hall has won merited praise as one of the fastest guards in the middle west. Brother Brand is assistant manager of the track team. Brothers Millious and Levering have been chosen members of Gamma Phi, an athletic fraternity.

C. J. RANDALL.

ETA CHAPTER, UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

URBANA-CHAMPAIGN, ILLINOIS.

The officers for the following term were elected at the last meeting and are as follows: H. S. P., C. B. Stahl; H. J. P., L. S. Ferguson; H. S. and H. C. S., H. M. Dale; H. E., Arthur Dechman; H. M., A. J. Fuchs; H. C., E. E. Leopold.

The annual Interscholastic Meet was held May 18-21. On the evening of May 18, the Senior Farewell and the Maypole festivities were held on the football green. The maypole dances were very interesting since many different national dances were represented.

On May 20, the athletic events were well under way and Illinois clashed with Chicago in track and baseball. Our ancient rivals were a trifle weak in the track meet, but in the ball game they tied us in the ninth and held us until the seventeenth inning when we got away with a few runs and ended the game.

Now that the examinations are over, Eta men feel proud, and well they may, for the Sigs. put up a good showing this year, graduating Brothers J. D. Hood and A. T. Smith in Science; W. C. Miller and Elmer Juergens in Civil Engineering; H. C. Balsom in Agriculture and R. S. Dietrich in Law. The steady and consistent work put up by the fellows will, with the exception of those graduating bring back next fall every man. This will help us to give a strong start. We have rented the old Phi Gamma Delta House on a short lease and will occupy it this fall. In a year or two we will be able to better our present plans, for we have what is known among ourselves as "The Building Fund." In brief, this fund is nothing more than some non-interest bearing notes signed by the members of the chapter. Each man has signed ten notes for ten dollars each, and these are payable—one each year—after the member graduates until the full sum is paid. This amount may seem small at first sight but when we take into consideration the men to come in the future we can see that it will soon reach a considerable figure. Plans for a new house of our own are already about completed.

University activities have been quite numerous this spring. We are very "chesty" in telling our rivals of the prowess of our baseball team which finished the season with an average of 1.000 per cent, having played a total of seventeen games. Such a feat has never before been performed by a Western Conference team. Illinois has made a name for herself in baseball, and next fall we are looking forward to honors from the football eleven.

The annual Circus occurred on the evening of May 21. This is a unique affair and shows clearly the Illinois spirit. The entertainment is provided by home talent, all the fraternities and clubs being asked to produce a stunt of some kind. This together with music, acrobatic feats, boxing, wrestling and races, makes a real good show. Eta put on a stunt which consisted of the uncorking of a huge "booze" bottle out of which emerged real spirits much to the detriment of those tapping the bottle. This was certainly an appropriate stunt, for the town had only just settled down after a strenuous campaign against license.

The annual conference meet was held June 4, and once again the doors of Champaign were thrown open to visitors—this time from the western coast as well as from the neighboring states. The meet was won by a non-conference team, Notre Dame, and Illinois tied for fourth place which was partly due to the remarkable pole vaulting of F. D. Murphy. He cleared the bar at 12 feet $4\frac{1}{4}$ inches which lacks $\frac{3}{8}$ of an inch of the Western Conference record. He tried for the record but was too tired to go any higher. Murphy is a pledge of Eta Chapter and we are proud of the work that he is doing. He has two more years of track work before him, and we expect that he will hold the record before long.

HOWARD M. BUTTERS.

THETA CHAPTER, UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN.

The last initiation of the year was held May 27, when Brothers H. O. McCully, '13, W. S. Allison, '12, and G. W. Cooper joined our numbers. This initiation can, we believe, go down in $\Lambda \Sigma \Phi$'s annals as the first ever held under the glow of Halley's Comet. The celestial pilgrim shone brightly over us in the field, and was pointed out in the good old style by the candidates.

Theta Chapter has lost by graduation this spring Brothers C. L. Gandy, E. D. Green, D. C. Walser and Leonard Waterman. Brothers Gandy and Waterman are six-year medics and will still remain in Ann Arbor as members of their medical fraternities. Brothers Green and Walser are both residents of Detroit. Thus, it is good to know that we shall not be without the visits and counsel of some of our charter members.

At the meeting of May 3, the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing half year: H. S. P., R. E. Hofelich, '11 L.; H. J. P., A. H. Frost, '11 E.; H. S., V. H. Pfaender, '12 E.; H. C. S., R. P. Campbell, '12; H. M., R. W. Walker, '12; H. C., H. E. Vernon, '11 L.; H. E., C. R. Stout, '12; Prudential Committee, C. F. Shaw, '11 E. and N. E. Van Stone, '12 E.; Grand Prudential Committee, C. F. Shaw; Tomahawk Correspondent, R. P. Campbell; House Manager, E. Hanavan, '12; Steward, Clarence Kellogg, '11 L. At a meeting of the trustees held June 25, Brother C. H. Brady, '09 L., was elected President, and Brother Shaw was elected secretary.

The year 1909-1910 has seen considerable activity among the $\Lambda \Sigma \Phi$ men at Michigan, and quite a number of the Theta brothers are now prominent in campus affairs. Brother McCall, '11 L., has been elected to a position on the Michigan Law Review which is a monthly paper containing matters of interest to attorneys. Each year, twenty members of the Junior Law Class are elected to assist in the editorial work connected with the magazine. This is one of the highest honors that can be conferred upon a Michigan Law student. Brother Ralph Eastman, '10 E., played guard on his class basketball team. He is a member of the "Turtles," an honorary society limited to students of the three upper classes, and he is also secretary of the New York Club. Brother C. F. Shaw, '11 E., was chairman of the committee in charge of the student Y. M. C. A. comedy, "The Choice," written by J. Fred Lawton, '11. The comedy was very successfully presented at the New Whitney Theater, June 3. Brother Shaw is also general chairman of student missionary activities at Michigan, which includes a movement to establish a mission hospital and college at Busrah, Arabia.

One week later, May 20, 21, the Michigan Athletic Association held its annual Interscholastic Meet. The meet, while not exceptionally brilliant, was up to the standards of former years, and some very good performances were witnesses. As an item of entertainment for the Interscholastic visitors, Cap Night was placed on Friday evening. On this occasion, practically all the students march out by classes, accompanied by spectators whose numbers run into the thousands, to Sleepy Hollow, which is a great natural amphitheater on the edge of Ann Arbor. In the center of the Hollow a huge bonfire is built, lighting up the whole place. After speeches, and the singing of certain time-honored songs, the Freshmen run around the fire in the "snake dance," throw their little gray caps into the flames at the last circuit, and come out Sophomores. It is Michigan's most picturesque custom. Theta Chapter entertained a number of Interscholastic guests from Detroit and Toledo at that time and secured some good future timber for $\Lambda \Sigma \Phi$. During the same week, the Michigan May Festival, which has become one of the musical events of the middle west, was held. Several of the more musically inclined brothers attended the concerts.

The annual dance, which was followed by a two days' house party, was held at the Ann Arbor Country Club, June 24. The guests arrived on Friday afternoon and at 6:30 o'clock all sat down to a formal dinner. After dinner, carriages arrived and conveyed all the members of the party to a special car, and after half an hour's ride, the Country Club was reached, where dancing was carried on till midnight. On Saturday afternoon the guests were taken for a canoeing trip on the Huron River. In the evening a most sumptuous picnic supper was provided, and when everybody was satisfied, the musical members of the party entertained the rest until it was time to take to the canoes again. On Sunday afternoon a pleasant drive was taken to Whitmore Lake which is about ten miles distant from Ann Arbor. A chicken dinner at the little country inn, and then a restful drive home in the cool of the evening ended the enjoyable day. The party broke up on Monday morning when the guests spoke highly of the good time they had had, and they were loath to leave. The following attended the house party: Mr. and Mrs. Delery J. Green and William Mayers, Detroit; Misses Irene Beath, Gladys McCloud and May Handry, Detroit; Adele Bayly, Mason, Michigan; Hilary Brady and Charlotte Derifeld, Saginaw, Mich.; Mabelle Hicks, Mabel Brady and Helen Walton, Toledo, Ohio; Jeanette Beck, Goshen, Ind.; Katherine Graham, Newtown, Pa.; Beatrice Bradley, Battle Creek, Mich., and Brothers Brady, Green, Gandy, Waterman, Frost, Shaw, Vernon, Hofelich, Gerard, Walker, Pfaender and Cooper.

The weeks since the appearance of the last Tomahawk have been busy ones at Michigan. On May 13 and 14 were held the annual spring games between the two lower classes. On Friday afternoon came the two tugs of war, between lightweight and heavyweight teams, pulling across the river. It is a point of honor that no man on a losing team shall leave his place on the rope; all must stick and be pulled through. The Soph. lightweight and Fresh. heavyweight teams were victorious, after two very obstinate contests. Saturday morning the three obstacle relay races were run. The teams are made up of sixteen men, each of whom carries a class banner 220 yards in the course of which he must clear a seven-foot fence, and dive through a barrel, a rather ludicrous, but by no means easy, performance. The Sophs. won all three races. Last came the Push-Ball Contest in which the class of '12 went down to an honorable defeat, being scored on but once, although outnumbered three or four to one. Brother E. M. Hanavan was among the gloriously prominent on the 1912 relay and lightweight tug of war teams.

IOTA CHAPTER, CORNELL UNIVERSITY

ITHACA, N. Y.

The second house dance given by Iota Chapter took place April 29, when fifteen couples were present. The house was becomingly decorated with palms and cut flowers which were greatly admired by the guests. The music was good and everybody agreed that the house dance was a thorough success.

The chapter was represented at the National Convention at Marietta by Brothers Griffiths, Slocum, Hogg, King and Spenser. Brothers Hogg, Slocum, King and Spenser, not being satisfied with the railroad service journeyed from Pittsburg to Marietta by boat, and they say that they had a most enjoyable trip.

Iota Chapter has recently been incorporated under the laws of New York State, with Brothers Warner, Wallace, King, Spencer and Griffiths as directors. The board consists of two active and three alumni members who will have charge of the Building and Alumni Funds. Brother A. E. Ely, (Yale '07), prepared the incorporation papers.

Iota Chapter is still taking an active interest in athletics, and from present appearances, some of the brothers will be able to take their places beside Cornell's best athletes. We expect much of Brother Brodt who has been doing such good work on the Freshman track team. He won his numerals last fall in the inter-college cross-country race, and this spring he again won his numerals and also a gold medal by winning the mile run at the Cornell-Penn. Freshman track meet.

The Seniors who were graduated this year were Brothers Crumrine, Drake, Griffiths, Wallace and Warner. We feel that our success is due largely to their enthusiasm, and we are very sorry to lose them. Brother Crumrine expects to work with a rubber company in Akron, Ohio; Brother Drake will be with the Empire State Stove Company of Friendship, N. Y.; Brother Griffiths will spend the summer with his parents in Pensacola, Florida, taking charge of the New Orleans office of an industrial concern in the fall; Brother Wallace intends to enter the Westinghouse Electric Company, and Brother Warner will work for the American Water Works & Guarantee Company at Pittsburg.

At the election held May 2, the following officers were elected: H. S. P., Brother King; H. J. P., Brother Fox; H. E., Brother Spenser; H. S., Brother Hayman; H. C. S., Brother Hogg; H. M., Brother Bealses, and Brother Pitner was elected house manager. The last initiation was held April 23, when Brothers Hayman and Jennings were taken into the Mystic Circle.

Iota Chapter has finished her second year with a success that has surpassed our expectations. We began the year with ten members, but increased our numbers to twenty-three. The chapter roll now stands at twenty, three of our brothers having left college last February. We have no intention of resting on our oars, and next year, profiting by our past experience, we hope to have a good strong chapter.

During the summer the majority of the brothers will be engaged in various kinds of employment and several will continue their studies. Brothers Spencer, Manson, Laley and King expect to attend summer school, and Brother I. M. Hawley, Michigan, '09, has written to say that he intends to be with us this summer. After taking several courses at the University of Pittsburg, Brother Slocum, ex-'12, will enter the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia next year. Brother Aydelotte is at present assistant advertising manager of the Diamond Rubber Company of Akron, O. Brothers Pitner and Hogg expect to work in Montana this summer and Brother Lowther who has been very ill for the last month expects to go west as soon as his health will permit.

GEORGE P. HOGG.

KAPPA CHAPTER, UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN

MADISON, WIS.

Brother Herbert Kulasavicz, '13, is spending the summer at Bessemer, Mich.

Brother L. H. Mohr, '13, witnessed the Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno, Nev., on July 4.

Brothers J. R. Newman, '10, and G. E. Worthington, '10 received their baccalaureate degrees June 22.

Brothers Carl and Walter Esau, '11, were elected majors for next year of the University Cadets. Brother L. H. Stewart received a captaincy.

As a result of fraternity investigation at Wisconsin, Freshmen will be ineligible for membership in every fraternity after January 1, 1911. Kappa Chapter will feel this new ruling severely, at first.

Kappa Chapter finished the baseball season at the foot of the Fraternity League. Nevertheless, Kappa admittedly had the best battery of the league. If they had had the proper support, the final percentages would have been noticeably different.

Kappa will move into her permanent Chapter House on September 1. It is an excellent fifteen-room house, recently occupied by the Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity. The house is in the heart of the Greek-letter district and is but 100 feet from the lake. The new house will readily accommodate twenty-five men.

On June 4, Kappa Chapter held her second annual banquet. The guests of honor were Brothers S. E. Smith, (Marietta '85), S. H. Clinedinst, (Marietta '94), and J. H. Roemer, (Marietta '87). The afternoon was passed in witnessing the Minnesota-Wisconsin baseball game, and the Washington-Wisconsin crew race, in both of which Wisconsin came out victorious. The men then retired to Keeley's, where a sumptuous banquet was awaiting. The brothers from Delta told many anecdotes of old Sig. days at Marietta, to the great enjoyment of the younger members. After the banquet, an evening of song and story was passed at the Chapter House. The visitors were also given an opportunity to witness a real Wisconsin celebration bonfire on the lower campus.

On July 1, the first Sig. camp at Wisconsin was established at Hoboken Beach on Lake Monona. The Sigs. who went into camp for two weeks were: B. H. Dietrich, (Illinois '09); R. S. Dietrich, (Illinois '10); W. E. Wied, (Wisconsin '11); G. E. Worthington, (Wisconsin '10). Those who were present for a shorter period were: C. W. Esau, '11; J. R. Newman, '10; and H. D. Brainard, '13. The party was very alby chaperoned by Mrs. R. Swerig. The ladies of the party were: Miss Irene V. Starks, Madison; Miss Mable B. Swerig, Madison; Miss Vivian Swerig, Madison; Miss Mary C. Barry, Champaign, Ill.; Miss Margaret Vick, Madison, and Miss Cordelia E. Worthington, Madison. The cottage in which the party camped is one of the finest on Lake Monona, and with dancing, boating, fishing and launch riding, the time was most enjoyably spent. The time for breaking camp came only too soon, and it was only with the greatest regret that the party steamed away from Hoboken and the first Sig. camp.

GEORGE E. WORTHINGTON, '10.

WILLIAM GRAHAM SUMNER.

Professor William Graham Sumner, (Yale '63), died April 12 at the home of his son, Graham Sumner in Englewood, N. J., following a stroke of apoplexy on December 27, which had prevented him reading his address as president of the American Sociological Association in New York. He was born at Paterson, N. J., October 30, 1840, the son of Thomas and Sarah Graham Sumner. Early in life his parents removed to Hartford, Conn., where the boy's education was received in the public schools. He clerked in a store for two years and then went back to school to prepare for college. After graduation he traveled abroad, engaged in the study of French, Hebrew and the ancient languages. He went to Oxford to study Anglican theology having in mind to enter the church, but in 1866 accepted a tutorship at Yale entering on his duties in September. He was ordained deacon in the Protestant Episcopal church at New Haven, December 27, 1867. In March 1869 he gave up his position at Yale to become assistant to the rector of Calvary Church, New York City. From September, 1870, for two years he was rector of the Church of the Redeemer at Morristown, N. J.

In the fall of 1872 he took up his duties as Professor of Political Economy and Social Science at Yale. He served New Haven as an alderman from 1873 to 1876, and in 1876 he was one of the "visiting statesmen" sent to Louisiana to ascertain the nature of the presidential election held there that year. From this time on he devoted himself entirely to his studies. Until his health broke down he was a great worker, taking delight in exerting all his powers to the limit. As the champion of free trade his name was known all over the land. He was fearless in its cause. In later years he devoted his efforts to sociology almost exclusively giving up pure Economics. In both fields of study he was preeminent. His name was included among those of "the eleven great living thinkers." No member of the Yale faculty ever so inspired his students. Of Professor Sumner President Hadley said after his death:

"Professor Sumner was a man whose personality dominated his students more than that of any other member of the Yale College Faculty. A born teacher and a fearless champion of what he thought right, he made his students think with the same sort of vigor which he used himself. They might not always agree with him, but they were always compelled to use their brains about what he said. His intellectual influence extended far outside of the sphere of his own immediate department. Twenty-five years ago one of his students compared him to a Homeric hero; and the comparison was in many respects an appropriate one. He had the same simple courage, the same directness of aim and whole-heartedness of spirit, which in these days of tergiversation is a refreshment and a help to all who meet it."

On the reestablishment of Alpha Sigma Phi at Yale, Professor Sumner strongly championed the cause of temperance in so far as it related to the use of liquor in the chapter house, and although writing was to him a great hardship during his last few years, he wrote to Alpha Chapter a letter on the subject. He manifested a lively interest in the reorganized chapter, and the younger generations of Yale Sigs. were as devoted to him as the older.

WILLIAMS CLARK WHITTEMORE.

Williams Clark Whittemore, (Yale '55), died at Washington, D. C., on April 25. He was the son of Williams Howe and Maria (Clark) Whittemore of New Haven. He was born at Charlton, Mass., December 16, 1833, and entered college as a Freshman in 1851. After graduation he taught for a year in Trumansburg, N. Y., and then spent a year in study and travel. From January, 1858, to the autumn of 1859, he was with Norton R. Smith & Co., at La Crosse, Wis. Removing to New York in June, 1860, for five years he was a broker there. In 1865 he removed to New Haven and for five years had his home there, while, most of the time, traveling in a business way. From July, 1870, to June 1884, he was in business in Chicago, Ill., becoming the Western General Agent of the Pratt Manufacturing Company of Brooklyn, N. Y. This line of business he pursued until 1884, when he sailed with his wife for Europe. After an absence of two and a half years, during which period he traveled extensively, he returned to this country and made his home in Washington, D. C., where he remained until his death. He married Miss Mary Elizabeth, daughter of Hon. James F. and Elizabeth Babcock of Fair Haven, Conn., October 18, 1865. She died December 29, 1865, and he married Mrs. Sarah (Adams) Wilcox, daughter of Rev. Henry and Sophia Adams of Chicago, Ill., on November 27, 1883. She died two years ago.

HENRY HARRIS JESSUP.

News was received on April 28 by cable of the death in Beirut, Syria, of Rev. Henry Harris Jessup, (Yale '51), missionary and author. He was born in Montrose, Pa., April 19, 1832, the fifth child of Hon. William Jessup, (Yale '15), and Amanda (Harris) Jessup. He prepared at Cortland Academy, Homer, N. Y., and entered College at the age of fifteen years. After graduation he taught for a year at an academy in Montrose, Pa., and entered Union Theological Seminary in 1852, graduating in 1855. He immediately entered the service of the American Board as a foreign missionary, and in October, 1855, he sailed for Syria, serving first in Tripoli and after 1860 in Beirut, which was the scene of the remainder of his life work. His entire life had been spent in missionary work in Syria, with the exception of occasional trips to America. In 1870 the mission in Syria was transferred from the American Board to the Presbyterian Board and Dr. Jessup was later elected secretary of the latter board. He had had a career of activity, marked with many persecutions incident to the early work of the missionaries in Syria. In 1860 he went through the massacre of the Druses, a mountain tribe in Lebanon with a secret religion of their own. With a few survivors of the natives of this tribe, escaping from the slaughter of the Turks, he made his way and established a post at Beirut. In 1865 he was given the degree of D. D. by Princeton. He was for a time missionary editor of the Arabic Journal El-Nashrah and among his published writings are "The Mohamedan Missionary Problem," "The Women of the Arabs," "The Greek Church and Protestant Missions," "Syrian Home Life," and "Kamil, Moslem Convert." Two years after taking up the work in Syria he returned to America and was married to Miss Caroline Bush of Branchport, N. Y. She died in 1864, and he married in 1868 Miss Harriet E. Dodge of New York. In April, 1882, his second wife died, and in 1884 he married Miss Theodosia D. Lockwood of Binghamton, N. Y. A son, William Jessup, is a missionary in Syria, another, Henry W. Jessup, is a lawyer in New York City. Two daughters also survive him, both living in Syria.

HENRY NITCHIE COBB.

Rev. Henry Nitchie Cobb, D. D., Secretary of the Yale Class of 1855, who died April 17 at East Orange, N. J., was born in New York City, November 15, 1834, the son of Sanford Cobb and Sophia L. (Nitchie) Cobb. He prepared at private schools in Brooklyn and Tarrytown and in college was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. After graduation he studied theology at Union Theological Seminary for one year but left without graduating in 1857. He traveled in Europe and on his return engaged in business in New York City until 1859. He was appointed missionary, by the American Board of Commissioners of Foreign Missions, to the Nestorians of Persia and Koordistan in 1860, and ordained in May of that year. He resided in Persia from July 3, 1860, to December, 1862, and then returned to this country broken down in health and resided at his home in Tarrytown, N. Y., until 1866. He was pastor of the Millbrook (Dutchess County, N. Y.) Reformed Church from January 14, 1866, to May, 1881, when he resigned, again on account of ill health. In October, 1882, he was elected Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Foreign Missions of the Reformed Church in America, which position he continued to occupy during the remainder of his life. He was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Divinity by Rutgers College in 1878. Dr. Cobb wrote a number of articles for religious papers and other periodicals, edited while in Persia "The Ray of Light," a monthly paper in the modern Syriac language, wrote a number of short poems and in 1874 carried through the press for the American Bible Society "The New Testament in Ancient Syriac." The year 1892 he spent in a tour of the world, visiting the missions of his board and spending some time in China, Japan and India. He was a member of the Oriental and National Geographic societies. He married, May 17, 1860, Miss Matilda A. VanZandt of Tarrytown, N. Y., who survives him with two children: Sanford Ellsworth Cobb, (Yale '87), and Maria VanZandt Cobb.
