The Alpha of Alpha Kappa Pi

Just a Minute-

- DESPITE the coming of war, another college year has come to the fraternities and colleges of America. The way in which these strenuous conditions are met by the chapters will determine the value of the fraternity system and the strength of the chapters for years to come. Each chapter will have new and different problems. More inspiration, toil and faith will be necessary than ever before.
- ALPHA MU chapter at Carthage College makes its first bow in this issue of THE ALPHA. We heartily welcome this new chapter which comes with such a long and distinguished background.
- "AN OPEN LETTER TO A JUNIOR" marks the third of a series of articles written by an Alpha Kappa Pi father to his son at the beginning of each college year. It is well worth your attention in these times.
- AFTER you have read the list of "Brothers in the Service" kindly send to us the name of any brother omitted on the form prepared for this purpose. A complete list of the brothers serving our country is desired for the history and permanent records of the fraternity.

The ALPHA of Alpha Kappa Pi

An Open Letter to a Junior

Written by an Alpha Kappa Pi Father to his Son

Well, son, two years of collegiate life are now behind you, and each succeeding year, I find it a bit more difficult to advise you through these annual letters. Not that I sense any spirit of difference growing between us, but that I have some how caught the notion that you are growing-up, and therefore, for the best interest for all of us, must be counseled rather than to be told what to do and what not to do. So in this your Junior year let us emulate more the spirit of Cicero counseling with his son, rather than as a dictatorial father laying down hard and fast rules.

Let us recapitulate briefly. The Freshman year is the collegiate time for getting rightly faced and adjusted. This orientation you have mastered in a most pleasing manner. The Sophomore year, generally speaking, gives evidence as to whether or not you have found the right way of things, and, indeed, is the proving ground to show whether you will be able to continue until your college course has been completed. The close of this second year has found you to be capably efficient and well considered on the campus. Studies and extracurricular affairs have found you not lacking. It is only a well deserved courtesy that we state here that your homefolks are pleased and satisfied with your accomplishments thus far. There is not a single fly in the most precious ointment. Nothing has happened in your experiences to cripple you mentally, physically or spiritually. The well rounded manhood is there for your third step along the pathway of your educational fitting for the future. While the old confidence is still pre-eminent in your desire and ability to continue as you have started, still let us not fail in pointing out that the Junior year is really the crucial year of your collegiate endeavors.

Before going further let us turn aside long enough to mention the Great War, not to discuss the war, but only to bring to your mind the solemn truth that, knowing the background of your family adherence to the American principles, even running back to the earliest Colonial days, there may be a complete break in your collegiate preparations. For if and when you reach the age of actual participation, we know there will be no slightest desire on your part to hold back your service to your country, nor to escape your full and responsible participation. Meanwhile, and until such time arrives, let me urge you to make the most of your opportunities so that a finer fitness may be yours when our Country's necessities calls for your support and your sacrifice in rendering such service.

But back to the letter in hand. Let me stress that now is the time when you should and must be settling in your own mind what work you desire most to follow when college years are passed. Here is a most momentous problem, for as you decide, so to a great extent shall your after years be rated.

It is also needful at this point for you to know that more and more a discerning public bestows honor only on those persons deserving honor. Never take the false stand that you might be able to secure honor through self-willing it. It might be well to take as your guiding motto those words inscribed on the shield of the Prince of Wales, "I Serve." Only through service do we achieve most surely, and through service do we discover the finest satisfaction. So in reaching out, in this your Junior year, do not fail to hold in mind the high goal that is marked with service. To this end let us name the three traditional professions of Law, Medicine and Ministry, as well as the many open fields in the World of Industries. We name these activities, but do not discuss them other than to warn of the hidden dangers that often trip us up, when, with an eye too closely set to crass commercialism, we make the choice of our life work. Very much as you reach your decisions this present year will your future endeavors be colored.

Not hurriedly, but carefully, and with the noblest ideals, you should begin to map your future course and to determine where and how your influence shall count when your days in college have ended. Here is the one big challenge of your third or Junior year.

Perhaps it might help you to think straight and to reach the right answers if we were to set before you the ideas of two keen and cultured minds.

David Grayson: "I do not have to make over the universe; I have only to do my job, great or small, and to look often at the trees and the hills and the sky, and be friendly with all men."

Charles Kingsley: "There are two kinds of freedom; one is false, where a man is free to do as he likes; the other which is true, where a man is free to do as he ought."

May your Junior year prove as profitable, and in an even more knowing way, than your Sophomore and Freshman years, which indeed were wholly successful to yours truly, and the members of the immediate family.

Roll Call for AK II Brothers in Service

We are maintaining a service directory which will also be used as a basis for the history of A K II Brothers in the present World War. The list of Brothers in the service grows every day. Alpha Mu Chapter Succeeds Zeta Chapter After 15 Years

By Milus W. Bonker, Alpha Mu '43

Carthage College

CARTHAGE COLLEGE was founded in the year 1870 to meet the need of the Lutheran Church in this section of the Mississippi Valley for an institution of the historic "Old Main" from out of whose doors the seniors march each June to take their last walk down the traditional Evergreen Walk.

In 1873 Dr. David L. Tressler became the

higher learning. It was the successor of similar schools at Hillsboro and at Spring-field, Illinois. Carthage was selected as the location of the new school by a commission appointed by the several synods of the Lutheran Church of Illinois and adjacent states.

Thus it was in 1870 that the history of Carthage College began. Professor L. F. M. Easterday was the first teacher; a kindly man whose chief joy was imparting his knowledge to others. Only sixteen students attended that first class meeting held in the Burbank building on the village square. On May 10, 1871, the cornerstone of the first building on the campus was laid. This was first president of the college; the institution began to function as a fully equipped liberal arts school, and the love and confidence of the community were hers. Four students graduated in 1875 as the first of the long line of distinguished young people who as Carthage College alumni have carried the name of the Christian college all over the world, to India, Africa, China, Alaska, Madagascar, Porto Rico, and South America.

After the untimely death of President Tressler in 1880, there was a time of change and depression. It was during this period that Mr. Henry Denhart became interested in the college. His generous gifts and the benefactions of others made possible the increased physical plant of the college and its greatly enlarged endowment fund.

The college's aim is to serve the needs of her young people. To do this she promotes many extra-curricular activities. The famous A Cappella Choir is dear to the heart in football, basketball, track, and tennis. Every student has an opportunity to do the creative work he enjoys the most.

Carthage College endeavors to foster the Christian spirit which will permeate the life of its students and manifest itself in all of every student and alumnus. It has made an enviable record for itself in musical circles and every annual tour it broadcasts over the National Broadcasting System on a nationwide hookup. It also has membership in national scientific, forensic, musical and literary organizations and has various social and religious groups on the campus. Carthage College has always maintained an excellent athletic record, having varsity teams their relationships. Being a church-related college, it is also aware of its responsibility to train men and women for evangelical leadership and tries to discharge this task accordingly.

Early in the history of the accrediting of colleges by universities and by agencies like the North Central Association, Carthage College obtained recognition. By the University of Illinois, she is fully accredited in Class

A, the university's highest rating. North Central Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges has always kept her on its accredited list since 1916. At present graduates have no difficulty in entering the best graduate, technical, and professional schools throughout the country. The college holds membership in the American Council on Education, in the Federation of Illinois Colleges, and in the Association of American Colleges.

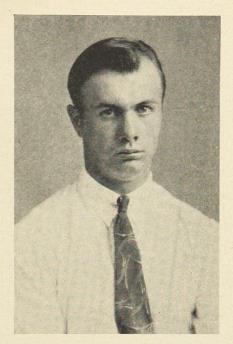

History of Local Society

The local Alpha Kappa Pi Fraternity had its beginning on the twentieth day of March 1921, as a result of a meeting of six men at the home of Miss Carrie D. Merrill, Carthage, Illinois. These men, with a unanimity of purpose and ideals, felt the necessity of the formation of a new fraternity on the campus of Carthage College. The spirit of brotherhood has always been fostered and maintained throughout the history of the local chapter.

Being a progressive organization, our brothers desired the advantages of a more widened horizon. With this in view, in 1927,

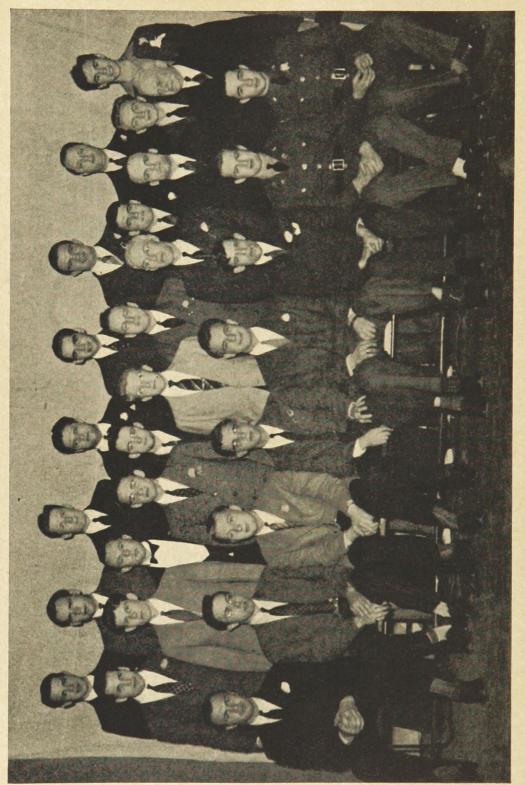

CALVIN SIFFERD, Chapter Counsellor

Donald O. Eisfeller, Alpha Nu '42 President of petitioning group, holder of college 440 yd. record, winner of graduate scholarship.

they petitioned for membership into the national Alpha Kappa Pi brotherhood. This privilege was granted and our fraternity became the Zeta Chapter of Alpha Kappa Pi and duly initiated by a Mr. Allen of Ellsworth College, Iowa. Due to our college faculty and board of trustees' opposition, it was necessary to dissolve the charter.

The desire for national affiliation, however, did not die. In February of 1942, the Board of Trustees of Carthage College granted to each of its social organizations the opportunity to unite with the national society of its choice. We immediately consulted with Brother Wilson relative to the proper steps to be taken in renewing our charter privileges. On April 18, 1942, we were again initiated into Alpha Kappa Pi, this time as Alpha Mu Chapter. We had the distinguished pleasure of having with us Brother Albert H. Wilson, Brother Frank J. Krebs, Brother Shoemaker of the University of Toledo, and a delegation of brothers of Alpha Eta Chapter from Milton College, Wisconsin, including Province Chief, Brother Van Horn.

With the addition of Alpha Kappa Pi to the Carthage College campus, we rest assured that the historic expression Carthago non delenda est shall ever be true. We shall always endeavor to be worthy of the honor bestowed upon us.

The Installation

 WITH the arrival of Brothers Wilson and Krebs on the campus of Carthage College, Alpha Mu had its beginnings. After being introduced to all of their potential brothers, they addressed the group with words of greetings. Immediately plans were made for the great day, April 18, 1942. At ten o'clock in the morning the initiations began, lasting throughout the afternoon until five o'clock. At noon the Alpha Eta delegation from Milton College, Wisconsin, arrived to take part in the ceremony. Five of their group together with Brother Shoemaker of Alpha Delta, and Brother Krebs, constituted the ritual team. Nineteen proud and happy brothers were added to the ranks of Alpha Kappa Pi. Of this number, one of the brothers was from Alpha Eta who had successfully completed his pledging season.

Needless to say, after an arduous day of initiating, the brothers were not reluctant to adjourn to the fellowship banquet. In the midst of a home-like setting, the brothers rejoiced with each other over the great events of the day. The meal was spiced with talks by our beloved Adviser, Brother Wilson; Brother Van Horn, province chief; Brother Lake, president of Alpha Eta; Brother Sifferd, on behalf of the alumni; and the indomitable Brother Krebs, who watches over the grand treasury. With a few concluding remarks by our president, the banquet was brought to a conclusion. The day was successfully closed by the first formal meeting of Alpha Mu Chapter.

Alpha Mu's First President By Walter Wittman, Alpha Mu '43

OUR LOCAL CHAPTER was organized on March 21, 1921. Less than seven months later another event occurred, which, too, was destined to have a profound effect upon Alpha Kappa Pi at Carthage College. For on October 3, 1921, in a little town in northern Iowa—Manly to be exact—Milus Bonker first saw the light of day. He was nurtured on the corn that made Iowa famous, and today his friends agree that this corn is still in evidence. After struggling through grammar school and high school he was sent to Carthage College. It was here that the only significant event of his life took place—he became a pledge of the local Alpha Kappa Pi. He was tough enough to survive the informal initiations, so he was speedily accepted as a brother "Kap." This event proved to be as fortunate to the fraternity as it was to him. His abilities were soon recognized; he was elected to the secretarial post. He soon caught the zeal which filled the hearts of our first charter members—a desire to see our local Alpha Kappa Pi a chapter of Alpha Kappa Pi. Being a lively correspondent, he and Brother Wilson got along famously. His untiring efforts soon proved to our Fraternity Adviser that a chapter at Carthage was on the road to becoming a reality. As stated elsewhere, the administrators of Carthage College frowned upon national social organizations. Brother Bonker set upon the task of proving to them that their fears were ungrounded. His success in this endeavor is apparent. Alpha Kappa Pi is now the only national fraternity on the campus of Carthage College. And it is no more than fitting that the first president of Alpha Mu chapter should be Brother Bonker.

Besides working for the benefit of his brothers, our president has found time to engage in numerous extra-curricular activities. He is no mean debater, and for three years has been confounding his forensic opponents. He is also quite a tennis player, having earned his "C" with his racket. During the summer he has been doing field secretary work for the college. At present he is temporarily occupying the office of Director of Public Relations.

Brother Bonker is studying for the ministry. He is majoring in Classics and will graduate with the A.B. degree in May of 1943. After graduation he will enter Northwestern Lutheran Theological Seminary at Minneapolis, Minnesota. His oratorical ability, pleasant personality, and sincerity make him well fitted to be a true minister of the Gospel.

We respect our president, and all who know him do the same. So—Brothers of Alpha Kappa Pi—we present the President of Alpha Mu, Brother Milus W. Bonker.

Installation Sidelights

By THE OBSERVER

* Frank J. Krebs, incomparable Grand Treasurer of the fraternity who arrived early and stayed late, won the hearts and confidence of all the Alpha Kappa Pi men, new and old, at the Carthage installation. If the new chapter falls on financial difficulties it cannot be for reason the brothers were not drilled and started right by the financial wizard of the fraternity. Although it is said to be against all rules for a treasurer to be popular and desired, it was evident that no person was more sought after and acclaimed than our Buckeye "Watch Dog of the Treasury."

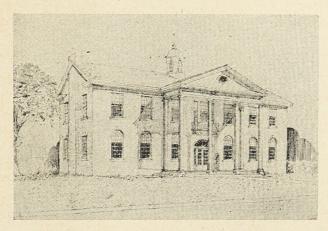

The visiting Alpha Kappa Pi men were deeply grateful for the way the Carthage brothers took pride in showing them the beautiful college campus and the attractive places in the historic Town of Carthage. Brothers Bachmann, Wittman, Stewart, Steinberg seemed to be the men named for this undertaking and right royally did they perform. It was not difficult to enthuse over so lovely a campus. The immense athletic fields and gymnasium, the old and historic buildings, along with the magnificent library almost completed, give an inspiring background.

Calvin Sifferd, now chapter counselor to Alpha Mu chapter, was on the job continually, and spoke at the banquet of his pride in being able to bring his Alpha Kappa Pi badge from the strong box, and flash it again after some fifteen years of submergence. An alumnus of the college and residing in his lovely home near the campus, Brother Sifferd will prove a tower of strength to the chapter for years to come. Brother Sifferd, it was plain to see, is one of the substantial business men of Carthage.

The new chapter suffers the loss of an lege has engaged him to bring Carthage to the attention of desired students of that vicinage.

Donald Eisfeller, athlete and scholar, was the conservative and dignified retiring president of the petitioning group. No wonder the local society was at its very peak in achievement at the time of installation into outstanding senior in William Shellhorn. His list of honors speak for him. President of the "C" Club, member of the student council, member of the interfraternity council, and vice-president of the fraternity, he received the football award as the most outstanding player and contributing most to the success of the team. His influence will remain long after he has left the college and chapter.

Waldo Berger, sophomore and football artist from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, brings a little bit of family ties into the college connections. His uncle, the Honorable John L. Berger, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, is a member of the Carthage College Board of Trustees.

Milus W. Bonker, the inspirational spark plug during the past two years of petitioning, seemed to be able to be doing many things at the same time and also able to refute the truism that the same person cannot be in two or more places at the same time. He was everywhere, and always with a glad hand and happy smile. No wonder the col-

the Alpha Kappa Pi fraternity. Such leadership always brings results. Brother Eisfeller set a new college record in the 440 yard track event and was awarded a graduate scholarship at the University of Illinois which he turned down to enlist as a cadet in the Army Air Corps.

Carthage College is a stand out in musical lines and here we find Alpha Mu topping the picture with Professor Lyle K. Atkins, head of the Music College of Carthage, as well as the Director of Band and Orchestra, now wearing the Alpha Kappa Pi badge. The Professor felt so good over the matter that he "set up the smokes" just preceding the installation banquet. It was a pleasure also to have met his charming wife and lovely young daughter.

Unfortunately for Alpha Mu and Alpha Kappa Pi Professor Robert L. Warren, Assistant, Professor of Physics, was on leave of absence for military service and could not be present for his initiation. However, on his return the Ritual will be revealed to him.

Alpha Eta sent down a car load of enthusiastic Alpha Kappa Pis. There were six of them from Wisconsin and none more inspirational than Dean John N. Daland, Milton College. Others were Province Chief Milton Van Horn, of the Milton College faculty, and Brothers Baum, Lake, Roberts and Pledge Lipke.

Elmer Lipke, the pledge from Alpha Eta attending the installation, became so Alpha Kappa Pi minded that he was initiated. With Dean Daland on hand to verify his standing for membership, he returned to his home campus wearing the Seven Pointed Star of the fraternity. Pledge Lipke came as a visitor but returned as a full fledged fraternity brother.

It was evident that the two groups of Alpha Kappa Pis, Milton and Carthage, were congenial for in a short time it would have been impossible for a casual visitor to separate them into their rightful chapters. As one of the Milton representatives remarked: "It seems as though we have known each other for years and years."

Although the installation was taking place on Illinois terrain the fact was noted that of the Carthage men being initiated four were loyal Badgers from the State of Wisconsin: William Shellhorn, Clarence Bachmann, Ardene Kalkoske and Arthur Cox.

Dr. James Wilson Poultney, faculty member, was one of the most interested of all the Carthage men receiving the ritual. A graduate of Johns Hopkins and Professor of Classics at Carthage College, he still is one of the most active and busy men in all the affairs of the fraternity and college. Two instances were regrettable, one for Dr. Poultney, in that he lost his badge almost immediately after receiving it, and one for the chapter in that he was called very shortly, after his initiation, to take up certain war labors for the government. No more popular man is found on campus or within the Town of Carthage than Brother Poultney.

Province Chief Van Horn really gave the heart of the rating of the men composing the new chapter when he remarked: "The constancy of these men (petitioners) through twelve years of the keenest desire for affiliation with the fraternity is alone, in my mind, a splendid endorsement." As one of the initiating team Brother Van Horn performed with dignity and fraternalism. Fortunate indeed is Alpha Eta to have his immediate guidance at all times.

It was pleasurable to observe the way the co-eds (Carthage College being blessed with a host of beautiful young ladies) were trying to seem not interested and still use every opportunity possible to gain a full inspection of the badge of the Alpha Kappa Pi coming to their campus life. No wonder the report is abroad that some of these interests have culminated in some of the Carthage brothers asking just how to secure a second badge in order that two instead of one might be wearers of the seven pointed star. Again we quote William Shakespeare and in full agreement: "There's nothing good unless a woman's in it."

It was most encouraging to hear the fine words of commendation spoken by President Schulz of the College regarding the Alpha Kappa Pi members. It is certain there will be no blocking of progress insofar as interest from the ruling source is concerned. Already Dr. Schulz has plans forming to give all the fraternities at Carthage a bigger opportunity to fully express their plans and ideals on that campus.

The Fraternity Dollar

By Grand Treasurer Frank J. Krebs

See a pin and pick it up, All day you'll have good luck; See a pin and let it lay, Bad luck you'll have all day.

IN THIS ARTICLE there is a radical departure from all previous articles. This article will deal with specific instructions to the chapter treasurer. It will answer some of the questions that arise from time to time. Of course not all of the questions are answered nor does it eliminate the numerous correspondence with the national treasurer's office.

Instruction Sheet to Chapter Treasurer

1. Initiation Fees and Pins

The National initiation fee is $18.00. This amount plus the quadruple application for membership must be in the Grand Treasurer's office two weeks prior to the day of initiation. Pins will be issued only if the cards are completely filled out. Please leave no blanks unfilled and check and recheck these cards. The initiation fee must be paid before the pin will be released.

2. Pledge Pins

Pledge pins may be ordered directly from L. G. Balfour Company, Attleboro, Massachusetts, or from Frank J. Krebs, Dellroy, Ohio. Price $1.00 each plus U. S. Luxury tax, $.10. Check, M.O., or cash must accompany the order.

3. Fraternity Jewelry

L. G. Balfour is the official Alpha Kappa Pi jeweler and is the only company that has permission to sell Alpha Kappa Pi jewelry. All jewelry other than the official plain badge may be purchased from Balfour or their representative. No release from the National office is necessary. The U. S. Supreme Court has ruled that fraternity jewelry is not exempt from state or city sales or use tax.

4. Replacing Official Badge

A plain badge is the official Alpha Kappa Pi badge. This pin may be replaced only by permission of the Grand Treasurer. Such permission will be granted only when the request is accompanied by a notarized statement that the original pin has been lost.

5. National Accounting System

The Grand Treasurer will furnish to each chapter free a manual on Chapter Accounts and how to keep them. Requests should be sent to Frank J. Krebs.

6. Reports

Requests for information will be made from time to time. Please answer such requests promptly. All reports should be carefully filled out and checked before sent to the Grand Treasurer. BE PROMPT AND ACCURATE.

7. National Dues

National Dues are $6.00 for each undergraduate initiated prior to the present academic year. All undergraduates who fail to pay this obligation should be dealt with according to the constitution.

THE ADVISER'S

CORNER

Chapter Co-operation

IN THE MATTER of chapter building there are three marked ways in which the individual member may co-operate. One is to do less than your part of the job, which is really not co-operating at all and explains why the word dormant or inactive fills the space where the chapter's name would otherwise be appearing. The second is to be meticulous and do just exactly your share of what you find must be done to further the interests of the corporate chapter. In this attitude of co-operation the chapter will stand at status quo if not falling below the average level. Therefore mediocrity will be the result. The third is to do as much more than your share as you possibly can. Then, if all the other members decide upon the same course of action, what a stand out chapter would be found, and no matter on what campus that chapter may be established. What is the type of co-operation now holding the spot light in the chapters of Alpha Kappa Pi? As that question is answered so will the chapter be holding the torch in action.

Chapter Counselors

FROM time to time the fraternity is asked by some chapter counselor: What is the work of the counselor? If a moment's reflection had been taken the above query would be wholly unnecessary. To take counsel means to confer, and to be a chapter counselor indicates that the Chapter Counselor has the right to acquaint himself with every fraternal and business detail of the chapter under his care. Then if he finds the program is progressive and healthy, to keep the ship sailing under such conditions. If on the other hand he discovers poor management in social, financial or scholastic matters, it is his business to take immediate steps to remedy these conditions. If there is one criticism against the average counselor it is that too many of these appointees take their responsibilities too lightly, and in some instances fail either to inspire or correct the chapter, but waste the time of self and chapter in carping criticism. Alpha Kappa Pi is fortunate in possessing some remarkable Chapter Counselors, and from these men come no plaints but inspirational reports of progress. Others are doing splendid work and make no reports, which is not good policy. Then a few have permitted the chapter under their care to get into tight places, and then instead of correcting the errors, begin to ask "What can the chapter counselor do?" Over the years these chapters have been most fortunate in their Counselor: Alpha, Nu, Omicron, Rho, Psi, Alpha Alpha, Alpha Gamma, Alpha Delta, Alpha Eta, Alpha Iota and we are sure the most recent chapters at Rensselaer, Ohio Northern and Carthage will find their respective Counselors alert and capable. There is no work more important at this very moment in the life of the fraternity than that of the Chapter Counselor. Know your chapter, then meet the needs as they are brought to your attention.

Province Chiefs

THE Province Chiefs in the Alpha Kappa Pi Fraternity should be more than active this coming collegiate year. War with its rightful demands has placed extra burdens on the collegiate chapters and the Province Chief has his work cut out for him if there is to be the rightful contacting of the different collegiate units. Do not wait until the chapter falls into distress, but be ahead of the game and anticipate the needs and have them ready even before the need is actual. There is no better office in Alpha Kappa Pi where a live-awake Alpha Kappa Pi is able to contribute to the general advancement of the fraternity. He not only can keep his chapters in full going order, but he can make a study of the other colleges in his Province for possible future growth. One of the chief duties of the Province Chief is to see to it that his particular bailiwick is meeting the opportunity to make Alpha Kappa Pi stronger and better. The true Province Chief does not wait to give his advice and labors at the bi-ennial conventions, but he is continually on the watch-tower in service, so that when the bi-ennial conventions take place, he can give an appealing and constructive report of his Province Stewardship.

Right now every Province Chief should impress upon his chapters the following needs to be observed continually:

A day in and day out pledging program. Finding the man worthy the fraternity and winning him to the chapter. Keep the house filled insofar as possible. In pledging to coach the chapters to appreciate that Alpha Kappa Pi desires men, not mannikins.

Show the necessity to economize. Cut the budget to the bone and then meet it individually and as a chapter. Go as you pay rather than pay as you go.

Keep a systematic contact with the alumni and, if accounts are in arrears, show the chapter how to collect them.

Stress the foolishness of hell-week antics and inspire the chapter members to a constructive revamping of the house and chapter instead of wasting energy in nonessentials.

If the ALPHA were called upon to name one, and only one great and outstanding need in the fraternity, that need would be the need at this very moment of more Province Chiefs who actually know their Province needs. No officer in the fraternity has the opportunity of coming closer to the heart of a chapter than the Province Chief of that particular chapter. Alpha Kappa Pi should give a bi-ennial prize to that Province Chief who more nearly meets his every obligation within that stated period of two years, than any other of his fellow officers.

Extension Firsts

IT is not of slight significance to appreciate the fact that Alpha Kappa Pi, coming into a national existence long after the fraternity system had taken root in the life of the American colleges and universities, is still able to point to the fact that she stands first among national orders at several prominent colleges, and all these colleges highly accredited as to degree conferring requirements. In order of Alpha Kappa Pi establishments our chapters were first to carry the national ideals to Newark College of Engineering, Newark, New Jersey; Wagner College, Staten Island, New York; Hartwick College, Oneonta, New York; Tri-State College, Angola, Indiana; University of Toledo, Toledo, Ohio; Wayne University, Detroit, Michigan; Milton College, Milton, Wisconsin; and Carthage College, Carthage, Illinois. At practically all these campuses, old and well established local societies became chapters in the Alpha Kappa Pi fraternity, and carried much strength into the chapter and national fraternity life through the initiation of their alumni members. Then, Alpha Kappa Pi was second in placing chapters at Marshall College, Huntington, West Virginia; West Virginia Wesleyan, Buckhannon, West Virginia; and at American University, Washington, D.C. She was preceded at the West Virginia campus by Kappa Alpha Southern, and at American by Phi Sigma Kappa. At Wake Forest Alpha Kappa Pi was third to enter and was preceded only by Kappa Alpha and Theta Kappa Nu, the last named now a member of the Lambda Chi Alpha through merger.

ALPHA KAPPA PI HIGHLIGHTS

On Staff of Church Paper

REGINALD W. DEITZ, Alpha Alpha '35, who was first president of the Hartwick chapter, was recently appointed to the staff of the Parish and Church School Board of the Lutheran Church. Their publication The

REV. REGINALD W. DEITZ, Alpha Alpha '35

Lutheran introduces Brother Deitz in a recent issue.

"Pastor Deitz comes from a family of clergymen both on his mother's and his father's side. His father, Raymond C. Deitz, D.D., has served pastorates in the New York Synod and is now pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Hollis, L.I., New York. Dr. Deitz is a member and former secretary of the Board of Trustees of Hartwick College.

Three uncles—the Rev. A. D. Deitz, professor of Systematic Theology at Hartwick Theological Seminary, the Rev. Olney E. Cook, and the Rev. John E. Hoick; a great uncle, the Rev. Luther P. Ludden, a former western secretary of the Board of Home Missions of the General Synod; a greatgrandfather, the Rev. Alonzo P. Ludden; and a cousin, the Rev. Hugh Whitteker, president of the Nova Scotia Synod, are part of his family background. His mother was Miss Carrie Ella Whitteker, daughter of the Rev. Frank Whitteker.

"Pastor Reginald Deitz was born in Middleburg, New York. He attended high school at Johnstown, New York, graduating in 1931 as valedictorian of his class. He then entered Hartwick College, Oneonta, New York, from which he graduated magna cum laude in 1935. While at Hartwick he was a member of the college a cappella choir, president of the Andrew and Philip Society (the student religious organization), and assistant editor of the college year book. Pastor Deitz took his first two years of theological work at Hartwick Seminary and then went to Gettysburg Seminary, receiving his B.D. in 1938. For the next two years he was resident graduate fellow at Gettysburg Seminary, during which time he received his S.T.M. degree. He continued graduate work at Union Seminary, New York, in connection with his pastoral work.

"Pastor Deitz is one of the young but active pastors of the United Synod of New York. He was ordained by that synod at Rochester, New York, June 15, 1938. Even before his ordination he served as Protestant chaplain in the Boy Scout Camp for Manhattan 1936-37. In 1938 he was assistant pastor of Luther Place Memorial Church, Washington, D.C., Dr. Carl C. Rasmussen pastor. He resigned this position to accept the fellowship at Gettysburg Seminary. In 1940 he became pastor of Christ Church, Airmont, Suffern, New York, and served that pastorate until coming here."

Camp Work

• FOLLOWING a custom of the past few years three boys were again sent to the seashore for a stretch of three weeks. The Camp is operated at "Cedar Beach," Port Monmouth, New Jersey, and in charge of Adviser A. H. Wilson. The boys going under the generosity of the fraternity were brothers—Robert, Richard and Anthony Diaz. During the "Days Off," Adviser Wilson was assisted by Brothers Richard R. Schwartz and Harold Tyrell, both from Theta chapter, Columbus University. It is a fine work, and all interested are grateful.

Kind Words

IN MENTIONING the entrance of Alpha Kappa Pi into the life of Carthage College, the Editor of The Cross and Crescent (Lambda Chi Alpha) had these kind words to say: "A new field has been opened to the general fraternities with the entrance of the thriving and well-organized Alpha Kappa Pi into Carthage College, Carthage, Illinois. The local chartered was of the same name, Alpha Kappa Pi, and receives the 35th charter issued by the fraternity."

Scholarship Cup

THE ALPHA is pleased to announce to the general fraternity that Alpha Alpha chapter, Hartwick College, Oneonta, New York, has won the cup for scholarship given on that campus. Thus Alpha Alpha chapter has topped its long list of triumphs along other lines, for the college year 1941-42, by going to the front in academic scholarship. Alpha Kappa Pi is always happy to note such successes among the several chapters. However, with our Hartwick chapter, high scholarship is traditional.

At Stevens

• DR. PAUL ALLEN, JR., charter member of Phi-chapter, St. John's College, Annapolis, Maryland, and for some time head of the chemistry department at St. John's, and for the past two years at Lynchburg College, Virginia, has been called to Stevens Institute of Technology, Hoboken, New Jersey, where he will continue to teach along his chosen line of chemistry. Before going to St. John's

DR. PAUL ALLEN, JR., Phi Takes up duties at Stevens

College, Dr. Allen attended Harvard and there received his degree. While residing in Maryland, Brother Allen served as Chief of Eta Province. After September 1, 1942, the Allen family will be located in New Jersey. Gamma chapter at Stevens will be benefited in having this enthusiastic Alpha Kappa Pi on their campus.

COMMENTS OF FELLOW

ACTIVITIES OUR GREEKS

Greek Notes

■ Lambda Chi Alpha has placed chapters at William Jewell College, Missouri, and Franklin College Indiana. At the first named college Λ X A meets Σ N, K A and Φ Γ Δ , with K Σ recently withdrawn. At Franklin are chapters of Φ Δ Θ , Σ A E and K Δ P, with an inactive Δ T Δ chapter of long time withdrawal. At Franklin Λ X A is a revival of a dormant Θ K N chapter.

Sigma Tau Delta is a local at Mississippi State College, and is a former chapter in B K that did not merge with other chapters going along with the \odot X fraternity. All negotiations were agreeable to all parties interested.

Pledging at the University of Florida seems to be an unplanned one among the fraternities. The past college year shows that some fraternities pledged as high as fifty or more freshmen, while other excellent fraternities were able to add, from the same class, not more than five or six men. The question might be asked as to the final outcome of such wide margin in pledge results?

Lambda Chi Alpha is the only fraternity, local or national, at Culver-Stockton College, Missouri. The past year thirty returning Λ X A men pledged a total of thirty-nine new members. Such success is often tinged with small satisfaction since there is no testing of mettle. A good sturdy rival would be beneficial to both Λ X A and the college.

Wofford College, South Carolina, is completing another half-million dollar endowment. Benefiting fraternities are: K A, Σ A E, K Σ , A Λ T, Λ X A, A K II, Δ Σ Φ , and II K Φ .

Alpha Xi Delta has placed a chapter at Penn State College, and becomes the thirtieth panhellenic sorority to enter this college. A Ξ Δ carries chapters at Allegheny College, University of Pennsylvania and Penn State with a dormant chapter at the University of Pittsburgh. This gives the picture of the A Ξ Δ life within the Keystone State.

Kappa Sigma has made its first entrance into the State of Connecticut by chartering a group of petitioners at the University of Connecticut. Nationals here are: Φ M Δ and A Γ P, with several locals with years of organization.

Alpha Chi Rho held its 1942 national convention at Middletown, Connecticut, with the Wesleyan University chapter house as headquarters. A feature of the convention was the pilgrimage to Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut, some fifteen miles distant to visit the mother college of the fraternity.

Delta Psi, in taking over its beautiful new chapter house at Trinity College, possesses one of the most adequate and beautiful homes within the New England States. Other Trinity fraternities: Δ K E, A Δ Φ , Ψ Y, Σ N, Δ Φ and A X P. Also one local, A T K.

Chicago University is rapidly becoming the graveyard for the Greek letter fraternities. Since the year 1932 no less than fifteen fraternities have withdrawn their charters, the most recent being the X Ψ . There are still some fifteen fraternities on that campus.

Washburn College, Topeka, Kansas, when threatened with a financial shortage, has been taken over by the City of Topeka as a Municipal University. Fraternities: $\Phi \Delta \Theta$ and $K \Sigma$. Sororities: $K A \Theta$, $A \Phi$, $\Delta \Gamma$, and Z T A.

SINCE the high tide of mergers and dissolutions among the general college fraternities seems to have been reached, and now that the merged fraternities have entered into their usual activities, and the dissolved fraternities are gradually being forgotten, it might be well to see just how the younger fraternities, those founded since the turn of the year 1900, are faring, and how many such units have been added permanently to the Greek Letter family. There are now in active service thirty-seven fraternities which were organized prior to 1900. $\Delta \Sigma \Phi$, founded at the City College of New York, was the last of the before-1900 fraternities, dating from December 19, 1899. Σ Π was founded at Vincennes University, Indiana, in 1897, but did not place a second chapter until 1905. Since that date the mother chapter has become dormant when the college lost its degree conferring power. Of the fraternities that have arrived on the scene since the year 1900, and after the dissolutions and mergers, we find there are twenty-one now actively functioning.

To some it might appear that the growth in numbers has been too great. However when you analyze these twenty-one fraternities as to requirements in membership, and consider the tremendous growth in college and university attendance, it might well be to change the conclusion from too many fraternities to the matter of too few. For instance we find that of this number, nine are fraternities for Hebrew students only, and of these nine, six of them were founded at the colleges and universities in New York City. All of them, except the one founded at George Washington University, were founded within the State of New York. In a certain sense they are not competitive other than among themselves; hence there is no crowding here. Furthermore of the twelve remaining fraternities one is for Catholic students only while still another one is for students of Italian parentage. Thus we find that the general fraternities, within this post-1900 grouping, and stressing no particular qualifications for membership, number exactly ten. This growth is far below the fraternity increase that brought into existence the thirty-seven pre-1900 orders.

Of these ten fraternities Λ X A and Σ Φ E have made the greatest advance in number of chapters and memberships, not only through the placing of chapters, but through two of the most noted mergers which have taken place among fraternities.

The Adviser's Corner

At Ohio Northern Alpha Kappa Pi was the fourth of the N.I.C. fraternities but in reality first since the Theta Nu Epsilon from which Alpha Kappa Pi was formed was the first fraternity to place a chapter at Ohio Northern. It is also well to point out that all these chapters are prosperous and stand among the best and most contributive to the annals of the fraternity. There are still frontiers, even in the field of national fraternities, if there is the awareness to find them. Alpha Kappa Pi is proud of its first, second and third establishments, as well as of the other chapters now giving a devoted service to the precepts of the fraternity.

Alpha Theta-Wofford

It is good to be able to report that everything is going nicely at Alpha Theta, and Wofford College. The chapter has lost fine men to the country's armed service, but being a college with a Military Department, the younger men are kept here to receive further instruction in the arts and sciences of such things.

At the close of the college year we elected officers and are set for the coming months immediately ahead of us: President, Bill Koopmann, Jr.; Bill Brown, vice-president; Dan Ferguson, secretary; Lansford McFadden, historian; Wilmot Mitchell, treasurer; Monroe Hiers, chaplain; Robert Sonneborn, sentinel; James Tribble, marshal. With this corps of officers, backed whole-heartedly, by the entire chapter, Alpha Theta is out to make Alpha Kappa Pi, on this ancient campus, stronger and still stronger, as the years come and go.

ALUMNI CHAPTERS

Oneonta Alumni

Eleven Alpha Kappa Pi alumni, all members of the Alpha Alpha chapter, Hartwick College, met at the 69 Spruce Street chapter house, May 9, 1942, and discovered that the largest attendance was recorded since the founding of this Oneonta chapter of alumni.

In the absence of Chairman Beecher, Vice Chairman Frisbee opened the meeting. The first feature was the reading of a splendid letter from Chairman Beecher urging the alumni to keep active and alert durng these trying war days. Then followed the reading of cards and letters from more than twenty-five of our Alpha Alpha alumni expressing regrets in being compelled to remain away from this gathering of fellow Alpha Kappa Pi men. These greetings came from places of business, home towns, and war camps.

It was decided by the association to maintain a Service Chart to be hung in the Alpha Alpha chapter house, and to inscribe thereon all the Alpha Alpha chapter men entering the military service.

Officers for the coming year were named as follows: President, Phil Frisbee; vice-president, John Sheldon; secretary-treasurer, Walter Whitney; Bulletin Editor, Wilson Worman.

This alumni group of Alpha Kappa Pi brothers are not only interested in the affairs of our Alpha Alpha chapter, Hartwick College, but in the affairs of the national endeavors, and, therefore, stand ready to do anything within our power to promote its welfare throughout the full length of our fraternity.
