THE TOMAHAWK
of Alpha Sigma Phi

This Issue

In this issue we pay tribute to one of our finest chapters who have shown by their actions that the Alpha Sig spirit is something to be envied by the rest of the fraternity world.

The actives and alumni of Theta chapter can indeed be proud of their accomplishments.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI ASSOCIATION OF MICHIGAN

"— and to foster the maintenance of college homes by chapters for their active members." It was upon this, and other, principles that Alpha Sigma Phi was founded. At one time or another probably every initiated member of this fraternity has read those words but nowhere could they have meant more than they did to those alumni of the State of Michigan.

Like so many others, some of the boys from Theta Chapter, at the University of Michigan, returned from the service in the fall of 1945 only to find that there was no Alpha Sig house on their campus for them to return to. It didn't take long, however, for them to get together and set up shop as an active chapter, without an abode. The last initiation conducted by Theta was in February, 1943, and their forces were not great enough to conduct another until May, 1946.

The first thing to do was to reorganize the alumni association so that it would be a live functioning organization. Live in that it would rekindle the fire of the alumni, and functioning in that it would somehow supply the necessary house that the undergraduate chapter needed so badly.

At the Founders' Day Banquet on December 6, 1945, held in Detroit, 53 alumni from the State of Michigan formed the Alpha Sigma Phi Association of Michigan to proceed with the reactivation of Theta Chapter in Ann Arbor. A plan was presented and $950 in cash and $1500 in promissory notes were raised at the meeting to begin the campaign for purchase of a house. A drive was made to obtain additional members for the association and certificates were issued to those who contributed fifty dollars or more. It wasn't long until 232 out of 472 of the living Theta alumni were members of the Alpha Sigma Phi Association of Michigan. Not only had Theta Chapter alumni contributed but so had a number of graduates from other schools who had become residents of the state. Fifty-three of the members have given a total of $6,410, each giving more than one hundred dollars. At least one member from each class since the chapter's founding in 1908 has become a member and some classes are almost completely signed up.

It is difficult to give all the names of those who have given unselfishly of their time, counsel, and money. We are listing all the names of those who have contributed and became members of the Alpha Sigma Phi Association of Michigan. We mention two names of two non-Theta men who have represented the open motto of our fraternity so well, and the title of this article "Causa Latet Vis Est Notissima." These two brothers are Clark L. Andrews of the Chicago Chapter, the First Vice President of the Association and Aloys F. Herman of the Pennsylvania Chapter.

The most important news of the year 1946 to both actives and alumni was the purchase of the new Theta Chapter house at 920 Baldwin, on September 2nd. At homecoming some one hundred and fifty of the alumni flocked to Ann Arbor to see the house for the first time, and they were not disappointed for the association had purchased one of the finest houses on the Michigan campus.

The second major physical acquirement was that of an annex. With this it is possible for all Sigs to be housed within Sig walls.

The association has functioned well, but no less has it begun to live. Old acquaintances have been renewed and old friendships strengthened; old spirit has been revived and new blood added; a new association has been established with old ideas of undergraduate service and alumni fraternalism.

A new drive has now been started to raise an additional $5,000 and to give all those who were not contacted in the first drive a chance to become a member of one of Alpha Sigma Phi's outstanding alumni associations.

As the organization of the graduated men flourishes, so does the organization of the undergraduates. The chapter is running well to the front of the pack at Michigan. Their finances are in excellent shape and their pledges are the pick of the crop.

Here is an example, not the only one but certainly an outstanding one, of what life-long fraternity membership means. Actives and alumni have had the spirit and have pulled together to return an even stronger Theta Chapter to its place of leadership on the Michigan campus. This program has been representative of the true meaning of the open motto of our fraternity.

Causa Latet Vis Est Notissima, the cause is hidden, the results well known.

ACTIVE CHAPTER, THETA

HOME COMING 1946

It was a beautiful day for a football game; crisply cool, clear and sunny. Thousands of milling people besieged by the raucous cries of the peanut hawker, the hot dog man and the balloon salesman wended their way to the stadium to watch a favored Michigan team play an under-dog Illinois. What followed is history.

But even the game couldn't spoil the day for the Alpha Sigs. They had left the House fortified by a good meal, as only the Theta house cook knows how to prepare, and now they were returning in anticipation of another fine display of culinary talent.

Many of the Brothers were guests and old Alumni. There were 150 all told. Quite a number to feed at one sitting. The art of food juggling was indeed brought into play. The crowded atmosphere was music to our ears, and the food soon became incidental to the talk of Theta memories.

Articles of Incorporation of Alpha Sigma Phi Association of Michigan

(These articles are published so that they might serve as a guide to other chapters who might be desirous of forming similar organizations.)

These Articles of Incorporation are signed and acknowledged by the incorporators for the purpose of forming a non-profit corporation under the provisions of Act No. 327 of the Public Acts of 1931, known as the Michigan General Corporation Act, as follows:

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is ALPHA SIGMA PHI ASSOCIATION OF MICHIGAN.

ARTICLE II

The purpose or purposes of this corporation are as follows:

To acquire, furnish, hold title to, maintain and operate a chapter house for Theta Chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity and turn over the entire amount of the net income therefrom to said Chapter.

ARTICLE III

IN WITNESS WHEREOF the incorporators have signed these Articles of Incorporation this day of, A. D. 194.....

BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

Name

The name of the corporation shall be Alpha Sigma Phi Association of Michigan.

ARTICLE II.

Purposes

The purposes of this corporation shall be to acquire, furnish, hold title to, maintain and operate a chapter house for Theta Chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity and turn over the entire amount of the net income therefrom to said Chapter.

ARTICLE III

Membership

Section 1: All members of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity may become members of this corporation on paying a membership fee, the amount of which shall, from time to time, be fixed by the board of directors.

Section 2: Each member shall receive a membership certificate, the form of which shall be determined by the board of directors, but no certificate of membership shall be issued until the membership fee has been fully paid.

Section 3: Each member shall be entitled to one vote upon all questions presented at any meeting of the members of the corporation and to one vote for each director to be elected at the annual meeting of the members. Members may vote either in person or by proxy, and members only may serve as proxies.

Section 4: Certificates of membership shall be non-transferrable, and all rights of members shall terminate upon death of a member or upon termination of his membership in Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity for any reason whatsoever.

ARTICLE IV

Meetings of Members

Section 1: The members of the corporation shall meet annually on the last Saturday in April, at Ann Arbor, Michigan, the time and place to be designated in the notice of the meeting. Special meetings of the members may be held at such times and places as may be determined by the board of directors.

Section 2: Notice of each annual and special meeting of the members shall be given to each member at least fourteen days prior to the date of the meeting by mailing notice thereof to his address as it then appears in the records of the corporation. The notice of any special meeting shall specify the purposes for which the meeting has been called. An affidavit of mailing of the notice of any annual or special meeting of the members shall be conclusive evidence of the receipt of notice by the members.

Section 3: A quorum shall consist of twenty-five members represented either in person or by proxy.

Section 4: All meetings of the members shall be governed by Roberts' Rules of Order.

ARTICLE VI

Directors

Section 1: The business of the corporation shall be managed by a board of twelve directors who shall be elected by the members for terms of three years. The directors shall be divided into three classes of four directors each, the terms of office of one class of directors expiring at each annual meeting. The terms of office of Dr. William M. Brace, Frank J. Brady, Thomas Conlon, and Sylvester C. Shea shall expire at the annual meeting to be held in 1947, the terms of office of Earl A. Anderson, Walter C. Gernt, Lloyd Grinnell and Douglas P. Hammial at the annual meeting to be held in 1948, and the terms of office of Harry S. Benjamin, Thomas Caley, Stanley Fay and Aloys Frank Herman at the annual meeting to be held in 1949. Four directors shall be elected at each annual meeting of the members commencing with the annual meeting to be held in 1947. Nominations for the board of directors may be made by a nominating committee appointed by a majority of the officers of the corporation.

Section 2: A meeting of the directors shall be held immediately following each annual meeting of the members, and special meetings of the directors may be called by the President or any two directors at any time. Notice of each special meeting of the directors shall be given to each director three days prior to the date of the meeting by mailing a notice thereof to his address as it then appears in the records of the corporation. The purposes of the special meeting need not be stated in the notice.

Section 3: The Board of directors shall have direct supervision and control over the chapter house and all other property of the corporation, shall have power and authority to acquire, hold title to, protect and convey property for and in the name of the corporation, shall have power and authority, whenever the general interests of the corporation require, to borrow money and issue promissory notes and bonds of the corporation for repayment thereof with interest at

of Alpha Sigma Phi Association of Michigan.

Changes made on April 26, 1947

The following changes were made in the by-laws of the Association at the annual meeting held on April 26, 1947.

Article IV, Section 1, was deleted and in its place the following provided:

The members of the corporation shall meet annually on the last Saturday in April at the Chapter House in Ann Arbor, or at such other time during the month of April or May and at such other place as the Board of Directors may determine and designate in the notice of the meeting.

Special meetings of the members may be held at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

A new Section was added to Article VI to be known as Section 4, as follows:

Should a vacancy occur on the Board of Directors due to the death or resignation of a board member or for any other cause, the Board of Directors may appoint a director from among the membership and such director shall serve the balance of the term of the director causing said vacancy.

ONE MAN'S OPINION

Should Fraternities Relinquish the Right of Selection?

by ALVAN E. DUERR

(Since this timely article was printed in Banta's Greek Exchange, April 1946 issue, the fraternity world has mourned the passing of its author. Of him, nothing could be said that would be more fitting than this from the New York Sun;

"In the death of Alvan E. Duerr, for many years public relations counselor of the Manufacturers Trust Company, the Greek letter college fraternities of America must say farewell to a man who embodied many of the finest ideals for which the college fraternity is supposed to stand. He was scholarly; he loved scholarship for its own sake; he was a gentleman; he was kindly; but he was no yes-man and there was no flavor or snobbery or self-righteousness about him. As national president of Delta Tau Delta, later as president of the National Interfraternity Conference and, most especially, as chairman for many years of that conference's committee on scholarship, he strove through a long life to make of the Greek letter society not an end in itself but a means for improvement in the arts of gracious, studious, intelligent and companionable intercourse among undergraduates of congenial tastes and good breeding. The "frat" has not been without its faults; it certainly has not been without its critics. Great as the errors may or may not have been—deserved as the criticism may or may not have been—he was in his own person a perfect flowering of the principles which the fraternities profess to follow and endeavor to inculcate.")

Attitudes and regulations aimed at racial and religious discrimination, designed originally to be concerned only with employment, are being applied more and more to social relations. Fraternities are thus faced with a delicate problem, which will have to be handled with real tact, so as to steer a straight course between their unquestioned rights and increasingly articulate opinion.

Let us begin with some definitions. To discriminate against means to make an adverse distinction; but as popularly used it is merely the cry that is raised as a last resort by someone who does not obtain something which, under the circumstances, he had no right to expect. It is always helpful, when the expression is used, to discover which of these definitions applies.

Inherent Privilege

It is inherent in a membership organization that it has the right to establish its own rules of eligibility, and admit only those who qualify under those rules, whether financial, social, geographical, political, racial, or religious. But on the other hand, the college has an equal and prior right to determine what organizations shall be allowed to function on the campus. That is why we are in a defensive position. The only way out is the one that Lincoln used when he received a complaint that Grant was a whisky addict: wield such an influence on the campus through developing the social competence of our members, and so being a primary educational force, that no one will care how we select them, and will be interested only in the brand of whisky that seems to be so effective.

A Misconception

The criticism that fraternities discriminate racially and religiously is founded on a misconception of what constitutes discrimination. The basic need, and therefore right, of successful group-living is personal congeniality. This is a right because men thrive best in a congenial atmosphere, and no one has ever challenged the privilege of the individual to select his own friends. Any basic difference in opinion or taste or standard—no matter what its nature or source—may destroy this essential atmosphere of congeniality in the chapter house, and so destroy the solidarity of the group and its capacity for constructive influence. This is as true when the division is between play boys and purposeful students as when it is between men of different race or different religious belief.

American Intolerance

We are not tolerant in this country of people who entertain any type of belief that differs radically from our own. It is not so long since we pilloried atheists, although we were indifferent deists or Christians ourselves. An unsuccessful drive was made to defeat Taft for the presidency because he was a Unitarian; one of the ablest and most typical Americans rather recently was defeated for the presidency on the score of his religion. Fraternities are not responsible for this spirit of intolerance, but fraternity men do inherit these same prejudices, and it is doubtful whether the average chapter is mature enough to control them. And it is this same spirit of intolerance, extended from a difference of belief to a difference of privilege, which lies back of all this agitation about social democracy and all the charges of discrimination.

The situation is aggravated, moreover, by a natural tendency, found in every type of organization and business, on the part of people of one persuasion or interest, when elected to membership, to want to bring in others of similar persuasion or interest. And not on the score that they meet the qualifications for membership in the organization, but because of their extraneous tie with the proposed candidates. In the chapter, that leads to division, and such divisions have wrecked many a chapter. To avoid that is not discrimination; it is a realistic and sensible approach to the task of building a congenial membership, securing its solidarity, and assuring some promise of constructive usefulness.

To take extreme examples, what would have happened late in 1941 to a chapter which had a number of nazi sympathizers in it, or to a California chapter with a goodly number of Japanese? That problem was not solved successfully even by our government, nor by most of our mature men and women; what right have we to expect young boys and girls to solve it?

The agitators of social democracy, in which we believe implicitly, represent a small minority of the most radical element. Radicals serve a useful purpose in any situation. But we must bear in mind always that they represent one extreme of the question and that the truth lies somewhere nearer the center. Nor is it safe to judge of their intelligence and logic by the amount of noise they make. Nor do they establish truth by impugning the motives of those whom they would convert, or by misrepresenting their attitude or ignoring their rights. They are intolerant in their insistence that others be tolerant.

College Youth is Democratic

To attempt to force this issue of religious and racial intolerance on the college campus is a serious mistake, for two reasons; First, college youth does not lead or mold public opinion in this country. That is one of the weaknesses of our educational setup, that ours is the only important country in which great youth movements have not sprung from the colleges and universities. Secondly, the colleges do not exercise moral and social leadership even in their own communities, but are all too prone to follow the lead of their clientele. Consequently, to use the fraternities as a guinea pig for a social experiment for which they have no means of securing support in its many ramifications beyond the campus will meet with little success, even though no invasion of rights were involved. This is particularly true in the section of the country where our most serious problem of discrimination arises.

College youth is democratic, as is all youth. But neither can be made more democratic by fiat, nor by confusing democracy with congeniality, nor by calling the right to choose one's own friends discrimination. Let us assume that someone succeeds in making a sorority initiate a colored girl, what will have been accomplished? A whirl-wind of resentment and a deepened prejudice in groups which no one has yet prepared to take a broad view of human worth. And where does the girl stand with these same groups? Isn't her membership going to bring her more hurts than pleasure in the years to come? Is that going to help anyone or any cause? Wouldn't refusing to initiate her be the greater kindness? It is tragic, but people are often cruel in their thoughtlessness, and any remedy must be applied to the source rather than so late in the process. No wise man would force an issue unless he could control every state of the procedure.

If fraternity membership is to be used as a vehicle for proving that the American people have been cured of their prejudices and intolerances, the experiment is doomed to failure, just as prohibition failed to demonstrate that the public had lost its appetite for something stronger than near-beer.

Two Experimental Failures

Two efforts, that we know of, have been made to establish a fraternity that should recognize no religious distinctions. Both gave up the experiment. One is now admittedly Jewish "discriminating" against gentiles; the other is admittedly gentile, "discriminating" against Jews. May discrimination properly be charged in either case, or is our contention sound, that with all the liberality of both groups, the differences in attitude and custom made a cohesive organization too difficult?

The college's function is to educate, not to regiment or coerce. You cannot legislate morals, and this is a moral question, not social; conversion is indicated. And when the college, through precept and practice, has changed the thinking and feeling of all its component parts—faculty, students, clientele—realistically and justly, the relations between students of all colors and creeds will gradually adjust themselves accordingly. A current writer on the Negro problem says: "Emancipation may have legally freed the Negro, but it failed morally to free the white man, and by that fact denied the Negro the moral status requisite for effective legal freedom." Since freedom consists, in part, of not being a slave to our own prejudices and impulses, the full significance of this statement becomes apparent. There is the college's problem, to free the white man morally, to change his sense of values, to help him to master his prejudices and control his impulses, to cure him of the Hitlerian doctrine of the super-race, and to infuse men and women with a spirit of kindly understanding and tolerant appreciation.

Some Crooked Thinking

There are certain rights that we all have that are inviolable. Among them are the privacy of our homes and the choice of our companionship. To construe our enjoying these privileges as anything but the free exercise of an inalienable right is merely being guilty of crooked thinking. For anyone to try to use this right of ours as a means of securing for himself a privilege which would otherwise not accrue to him, is unwarranted intrusion. And that is the exact nature of so much of this agitation.

Even so, the college may refuse to allow us to function on its campus, though we exercise only rights that are unchallenged. In the first place, the manner in which we exercise a right may run counter to the prevailing spirit on the campus. We must be circumspect and conscientious about this, and always have a fine regard for the social objectives of the college. Secondly, the college may have failed so completely to guide student opinion to sound conclusions that the real issue involved becomes clouded in prejudices and misunderstanding. The president-elect of one

Senior Dinner

In the Spring of 1947 the Alpha Sigma Phi Association of Michigan inaugurated an annual senior class dinner at which time the actives are taken into the alumni group.

It has long been the failing of undergraduates and alumni alike that too often the senior is not prepared for the fact that he will be a member of alumni organization as he graduates. Because of this the alumni group usually loses a valuable additional active worker and the graduate loses touch with the fraternity.

We print below the letter that was sent to the seniors last year in which they were invited to the affair, and sincerely recommend that a like practice be followed wherever it is practical at other chapters.

Detroit, Mich.

Senior Class
Theta Chapter, Alpha Sigma Phi
920 Baldwin Avenue
Ann Arbor, Michigan

Gentlemen:

The writer has been directed on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Association to invite all the Senior members of the active chapter, and any post-graduate members of the Association on campus to be the guests of the Board on Tuesday evening, May 27. This includes Ben Clarke, Jr., Joe Fitzgerald, Bob Hoffman who were in the house the first semester and aided immeasurably in reactivating the chapter.

This will inaugurate an annual event at which time the seniors will officially become alumni members of the Association and join with us in developing the strongest and finest fraternity alumni organizations in the country.

The party will commence at Stan Fays home, 24744 Fairmont, Dearborn, at or about 5:30 in the afternoon. At 6:30 the entire group will go over to the Dearborn Country Club for dinner. As this is to be more or less a semi-formal affair, suit coats are in order.

Dr. Brace, no doubt, will be coming in from Ann Arbor, thus several men may arrange to ride in with him. We, the alumni will guarantee your safe return at a decent time to Ann Arbor. Stan Fay's home is just north of Michigan Avenue and west of Telegraph Road in old Dearborn. That is the same general vicinity as Al Herman's home.

We desire that you immediately determine the number coming and send list of names to the writer not later than Monday, May 19th.

Fraternally,

Doug. Hammial, Secretary (S)
ASP Assn. of Mich.

YALE

When Alpha Chapter decided in 1907 to admit a Japanese National within the Mystic Circle, she certainly used excellent judgment in her selection of the man. Baron Suyekichi Nakagawa, A '07, is a business tycoon of Japan, one of the country's foremost industrialists, one of Japan's strong men, both physically and mentally and a man of great wealth and social prominence.

Brother Nakagawa, who has a beautiful home at Shiba-Ku, Tokanawa Minimi Cho No. 46, Tokyo, Japan (one of the few not destroyed by bombs and fire) has been Chairman of the Board or President of more than a dozen vast utility, industrial and mining corporations and a director of these and many more.

I first met Brother Nakagawa at his office in the giant Furukawa Electric Industrial Co., Ltd., Tokyo, of which he is Chairman of the Board and which has its own huge office building. I was received most cordially, served Japanese green tea by his beautiful young secretary who was clad in a gorgeous kimono with brocaded obi and wearing the customary Japanese gita (sandals). Brother Nakagawa, who speaks good English, brought out some 40-year old group pictures in which he, Muzzy and Brother Waterbury appear, among others. He is very proud of these pictures, proud to be a member of $\Lambda\Sigma\Phi$ and says that his five years at New Haven were the happiest years of his life. He had already received degrees from Japanese universities, so he was 30 years old when he was initiated into the fraternity and is now 70 years old.

Brother Nakagawa is muscular, has a very strong face, and reminds one somewhat of Winston Churchill. He said he felt flattered by my call, that I am the only member of the fraternity ever to visit him. As the corporations with which Brother Nakagawa are connected are Zaibatsu (controlled by one of Japan's dozen or so wealthy families) they are being liquidated by S C A P. Brother Nakagawa has, however, reached the retirement age so that this does not affect him personally except that his son cannot succeed him. He insists that he had always opposed the Japanese military clique that ruled Japan before its surrender and advised them that their policies would bring ruin upon Japan and that they could never win a war against the United States.

After our first meeting Brother Nakagawa was stricken with a severe attack of the flu, making it necessary for him to cancel a "Sukiaki Party" with its inevitable Giesha Girl accompaniment, but I had enough of such entertainment from other quarters. The President of the Japanese Board of Trade spoke very highly of him as did other prominent Japanese including the Emperor's brother, Prince Takamatsu, who entertained me at the Imperial Palace and told his friends how I had helped entertain him at the Ritz-Carlton in New York in 1930 when I was a member of Mayor Walker's Committee to Entertain Distinguished Guests.

Brother Nakagawa entertained me at tea at his mansion although he was still unwell. The attractive house is large and is surrounded by a seven-foot high wall and heavy gate that is kept locked (in typical Japanese fashion). It was this high wall that stopped the fire, as all buildings across the street were destroyed. I was surprised, on entering, to find that the house is built and furnished Occidental Style, the only house in Japan (outside of the Imperial Palace) where I did not remove my shoes before entering, this at Brother Nakagawa's insistence, as there are rugs on the floor in place of the customary matting, and where I sat on a chair before a high and heavily carved ebony table instead of sitting on the floor beside an ankle-high table.

Brother Nakagawa's living room has the typical sliding doors opening upon a beautiful inner garden, inaccessible from the street. The plum trees were in bloom and there were the customary Japanese stone torii (lanterns) and heavy, carved stone animals. Here I took some snapshots of Brother Nakagawa sitting on the edge of his sun porch with the sliding doors open. I didn't have enough film to take the garden separately. I also got one shot of his attractive granddaughter in her kimono and getas with Brother Nakagawa standing in his front door in the background.

In Japan I was a V I P and was assigned a 1942 Packard and chauffeur at my service at all times, day and night. As I had plenty of gas and Brother Nakagawa (together with all other Japanese) very little, I did most of the calling. He returned my first call but I called on him three times and thus became well acquainted and warm friends and I deem it a privilege to have him as a brother in Alpha Sigma Phi. (Mrs. Nakagawa died two years ago.)

Dr. John Richie Schultz, 62, a member of the Allegheny College faculty for 30 years and the college's president since 1942, died in Spencer Hospital, Meadville, following an illness of several months.

The last official appearance of the former English professor was in June when Allegheny conferred an honorary bachelor's degree on Robert M. Rownd, 102-year-old Civil War veteran of Ripley, N. Y.

Dr. Schultz came to Allegheny as professor of English in 1917 and served as dean of men from 1930 until his appointment as acting president in 1942. He was named the fourteenth president of the 132-year-old liberal arts college in 1943. He succeeded William Pearson Tolley who resigned to become chancellor of Syracuse University.

Born in Canton, Mo., Dr. Schultz graduated from Culver-Stockton College in his home town in 1905. After three years as principal of Canton High School, he earned his master of arts degree at Yale University in 1909 and returned there in 1912 for additional graduate work. During the interim, he headed the English department at East St. Louis (Ill.) High School.

For many years Dr. Schultz was active in the development of summer Chautauqua programs in connection with extensive research work he did in the field of American literature. His particular interest was the study of backwoods provincial speech and professional language of rivermen. Among his more widely read articles were "Chautauqua Talk" and "Speech of the Button Cutters."

He held honorary degrees of doctor of laws from Allegheny, Mt. Union and Culver-Stockton Colleges and the University of Pittsburgh. He was also a member of Acacia, Phi Beta Kappa, Rotary, American Dialect Society and the Association of College Presidents.

UNIVERSITY OF MASS.

Brother Howard Lawton Knight ended 42 years of Government service at the end of 1946 when he retired from his post as editor in chief of the Experiment Station Record, publication of the U. S. Department of Agriculture. A graduate of Massachusetts State College in 1902, Brother Knight taught English and chemistry there for two years. In 1904 he joined the Agriculture Department, becoming a scientific assistant at the nutrition laboratory at Wesleyan University, Middletown, Conn.

Two years later he moved to Washington, D. C. as assistant editor of the Record; he became editor in 1923. As special agricultural editor, he furnished material for the revised edition of Webster's New International Dictionary in 1934. In addition to his membership in Alpha Sigma Phi, Brother Knight is a member of Phi Kappa Phi, the American Association for the Advancement of Science and the Cosmos Club of Washington.

of our famous colleges recently deplored the lack of leadership on the college campuses. Such leadership must be furnished by the college on this delicate question, which reaches every part of our country. In the meantime, let us all keep our heads, and approach the problem dispassionately and with great human consideration.

Cosmopolitan Theta

by Bill Leever

The days have passed when all Theta men were one-time Michigan freshman; when they were rushed, pledged, worked, taken through the Arb, and initiated. There is now in the circle a group of men who arrived in Ann Arbor fully aware of what lies within the Mystic Circle. These are the men who were initiated into the dear Ole Gal at various chapters throughout the country and now have come to Michigan and Theta to finish the remainder of their education. However, regardless of what their original chapter might have been, they are now true and devoted Theta men and hold important positions within the chapter.

From Alpha Nu came A. S. P. Conner and Pledge Master Bruner. Alpha Omicron donated one of their charter members, Bro. Philipsen to be H. M. at Theta. Toledo lost Brother Cal Graser. Wayne lost Brothers Francu and Moffatt and Michigan gained them. Brother Staub is from Alpha Mu and Brother Cocera from Alpha Xi.

Next year three more out of town brothers are expected from Beta Chi, Alpha Nu and Alpha Xi.

The Last Look

In the next issue:

In his second article to be reprinted from Banta's Greek Exchange Calvin Sifferd writes a discourse on the niceties of the treating of guests at social gatherings by fraternity men. It is suggested that this article be made required reading for pledges, by those chapters that can possibly work it into their pledge program.

How much does it cost you to belong to a national fraternity? Next month your editors are going to run excerpts from a study made by the National Interfraternity Conference on national cost of fraternities.

IDEAS

Our quest for something NEW and DIFFERENT — yet in good taste and suitable for mounting with a crest — goes on from day to day.

FRESH IDEAS in gifts and insignia which incorporate appropriate symbolism for new organizations and for party favors are our specialty.

It is these Ideas—and the quality of material and Skill of workmanship—which has built confidence in the minds of fraternity officials who turn to us with their problems—Insignia ° Keys ° Rings ° Gifts ° Favors ° Awards ° Paper Products ° Leather Billfolds ° and other merchandise of Balfour manufacture.
