FOREWORD

The Delta Kappa Gamma sends greeting to all chapters and members of Alpha Sigma Phi. We present here facts concerning our University, our city, and our members and fraternity for your information. The State is rich, and liberal toward education. The University is of high rank, just entering a new era in its development, and is destined to greatness. Fraternities here are few.

In every way, Delta Kappa Gamma is continuing to maintain high standards of fraternity life, and take a full part in the life of the University. As a local fraternity our further advance is distinctly limited to only moderate achievement. As a chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi we should be second to none.

THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA
IOWA CITY, IOWA:

Office of the President.

April 28, 1921.

My dear Sir:

I am asked by our local organization, the Delta Kappa Gamma group, to write you concerning their application for a national charter from Alpha Sigma Phi. I assure you we will be glad to welcome to our campus a chapter from your National Fraternity. It has been the policy of the administration of the University of Iowa to look with considerable favor upon the establishment of chapters by strong, reliable national organizations. We approve of the method of group living when such groups maintain satisfactory scholarship standards, clean housing conditions, and good business credit. We believe our fraternities on the campus are living up to these regulations and we are well pleased with the progress they have been making.

The group applying for a charter from your organization have not been in operation very long but show excellent promise for future development. They appeal to us as being sincere in their purpose, business-like in their administration, and deeply interested in the personal welfare of their men. We are, therefore, pleased to recommend them to you, and to the consideration of your various chapters and believe that you will not be making a mistake in granting them a charter.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) W. A. Jessup.

Hon. Wayne Misgrave, Junior President,
Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity,
New York, New York.

My dear Sir:

I am informed that our local organization, known as the Delta Kappa Gamma, is applying for a national charter from Alpha Sigma Phi.

While this organization has been in existence only since January 1st, we have come to look upon it as a group containing great promise for future development. They have a fine lot of men who are sincere and deeply interested in the future of their chapter. They are established on a good sound financial basis, their credit is good and their management also. We, therefore, do not hesitate to recommend them to the consideration of your national organization.

(Signed)

Robert Rienow,
Dean of Men.

FRATERNITY

Mr. Wayne Musgrave,
Junior President Alpha Sigma Phi,
New York City.

My dear Mr. Musgrave:

For the past year I have been faculty advisor at the State University of Iowa to Delta Kappa Gamma fraternity of that institution and now that they have decided to submit to you a petition for charter I am taking this opportunity to recommend them to you.

My efforts with this group of men have been confined strictly to fraternity problems and I have at all times spent my efforts toward making of them such a group of men as my own fraternity would be glad to take in. While some of the minor details have not been attended to, due to a busy year on both their part and mine, yet in the main I feel that the aim as a whole has been wonderfully well approached. I am confident that the leaders of this group are men who stand for the biggest and best that is in fraternity life; they have responded readily and eagerly and I am sure that they will respond even more eagerly to the direction of your efforts with the same end in view.

I am not afraid to recommend their interest and ability and loyalty to Alpha Sigma Phi.

Yours for the cause of the fraternity,

(Signed) J. M. Knappenberger.

HISTORY OF THE INSTITUTION.

This should give the name, date of founding, location, endowment, method of support, names of departments maintained and degrees conferred, and if located at different places this fact should be noted, number of students, male and female, equipment of the institution, names of fraternities represented, prospects for a new chapter if located there as your petitioners see it, etc.

HISTORY OF THE STATE UNIVERSITY OF IOWA.

Historical Sketch

A sketch of the formal history of the University shows a steady, unmitigated growth from the date of the first act to set apart a grant of land, to the present University with its complexity of colleges, schools, departments, divisions, medical and sanitary connections, and educational control.

An act of Congress, July 20, 1840, authorized the secretary of the treasury to set apart and reserve from sale lands in the territory of Iowa for the use and support of a University to be established when Iowa should become a state. In 1846 Iowa was admitted into the Union with a constitution which provided that the general assembly should take measures to care for the lands granted and for the application of the income to support the University. In accordance with this provision the First General Assembly on February 25, 1847, passed an act establishing and locating at Iowa City a state university. The capitol and the land upon which it stood were donated to the University in view of the contemplated removal of the seat of government from Iowa City. Delay in removing the capital prevented the opening of the institution until March, 1855. The organization of departments began in the same year. From 1858 until 1860, owing to the lack of funds, the normal department was the only one in operation, and the University was re-organized in 1860. The Law Department was established in 1868, the Medical Department in 1870, the Homeopathic Medical Department in 1876, (abandoned in 1919, the department of materia medica and therapeutics being united with the College of Medicine), the Dental Department in 1882, the Department of Pharmacy in 1885, the Graduate College in 1900, the College of Applied Science in 1905, the College of Fine Arts, or Mark Ranney Memorial Institute, in 1911 (abandoned in 1915, the departments of fine arts being united with the College of Liberal Arts), and the College of Education in 1913. In the course of the evolution of the University the various departments became, and now are designated as colleges. The Extension Division was organized in 1913 and the Iowa Child Welfare Research Station in 1917.

From 1847 to 1870 the management of the University was in the hands of trustees, elected throughout most of the period by the legislature. In 1870 the legislature substituted a board of regents, arrangement of the present campus is due primarily to the counsel congressional district. In 1909, pursuant to an act of the Thirty-third General Assembly, the control of the State University of Iowa, together with that of the Iowa State Teachers College and the Iowa State College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, passed into the hands of the Iowa State Board of Education.

A summary of total attendance during 1919-1920 is as follows: graduate college 482 students, liberal arts 3,202, law 152, medicine 244, nursing 199, dentistry 312, pharmacy 67, applied science 194, music 20, summer session 1,292. Total of 6,164 attendance for 1919-1920. For the year 1920-1921 there was an increase of 300 students over the previous record.

Athletics

The University authorities encourage sports on the athletic field in such amount and of such character as is compatible with the higher objects of the University. Intercollegiate contests are held with the leading colleges and universities of the middle west under conditions determined by the athletic board, which consists of representatives of the faculty, students, and alumni, and has general control and supervision of all athletics. The University is a member of the "College Conference," which is composed of the Universities of Chicago, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, and Wisconsin, together with Northwestern, Purdue, and Ohio State Universities.

The first football was played at the University of Iowa in 1889. In 1899 Iowa was generally recognized as sharing the middle west championship with Chicago. In 1900 Chicago was beaten 17 to 0, Michigan 28 to 5, and Northwestern succeeded in holding the Hawkeyes to a 5 to 5 tie. In addition to conference athletics Iowa has engaged in the major sports with Ames, the other leading state College, with varied successes. In the season just past the football team won three of its five conference games, losing only to Illinois and Chicago.

Basket-ball has rapidly gained in popularity at Iowa and the University has had this year a squad that ranks well in importance in the "Big Ten." This year Iowa had a team that kept "sport predictors" guessing, and succeeded in landing a comfortable berth in the final standing.

Grounds and Buildings

Campus and grounds of the University cover upwards of a hundred acres and accommodate about forty buildings. These buildings, or the majority of them, are grouped around the historical Old Capitol Campus, which is connected with the medical quadrangle and the hospital grounds on the east, the law and dental grounds on the north, the engineering quadrangle on the south, and the athletic and military fields on the west. To this campus, which has been enlarged from time to time by purchase to an area of about fifty acres, new purchases of about sixty acres have recently been added upon the slopes across the Iowa River. Connecting these two divisions of the campus, both of which will be extended largely in the future, new and tasteful concrete bridges have recently been completed with paved and parked roadway of approach from the lower side of Old Capitol campus.

In harmony with the considerable growth of the University in the last score of years, much attention has been paid to landscape gardening and to the architecture of University buildings. The arrangement of the present campus is due primarily to the counsel of the well known landscape gardeners, Olmsted Brothers. Proudfoot, Bird, and Rawson have been the architects of most of the buildings.

Just below the University grounds a concrete dam has been thrown across the Iowa River, providing, by turbines and dynamos, abundant light and power throughout the University, and also affording an extensive water-front for the enlarged campus and facilities for aquatic sports.

The majority of the buildings of the University are new, having been erected since the beginning of the present century, and their number is increasing constantly in harmony with the growth of the institution. In general, they are constructed in Italian Renaissance style of architecture.

There are several buildings now in construction, which include a new Armory, one of the largest in the Middle West, Nurses Home, and Psychopathic Hospital.

Societies Fraternities and Sororities.

National social fraternities at the University are: Acacia, Alpha Kappa Kappa, Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Delta Chi, Delta Sigma Delta, Delta Tau Delta, Kappa Alpha Psi, Kappa Sigma, NuSigma Nu, Phi Alpha Delta, Phi Beta Pi, Phi Delta Phi, Phi Delta Chi, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Kappa, Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Rho Sigma, Phi Gamma Delta, Psi Omega, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Pi, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Theta Psi, Psi Xi Phi. National Sororities are: Achioth, Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Delta Psi, Alpha Delta, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Delta Sigma Theta, Delta Zeta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Chi Omega.

Technical

Numerous organizations among faculty and students constitute an important influence for general culture, scientific research, and literary and forensic training. The societies which are composed jointly of members of the faculty and students, together with the field in which each is interested, are as follows: Baconian Club, natural science; Political Science Club, history, politics, economics, law, education, and ethics; Humanist Society, language, literature, and art; Philosophical Club, philosophy, psychology, education, and aesthetics; Readers' Club, English literature; Research Club, productive scholarship; Athelney Society, creative and critical literary work; Zoological Club, zoology; Graduate Club, various fields of graduate study; Commerce Club, business and commercial interests; and others.

Honorary

At the University are also chapters of various honorary societies. Phi Beta Kappa (Alpha of Iowa) emphasizes the study of letters, and elects to membership from the senior class each year, on the basis of excellence in scholastic attainments, a certain number who have attained high standing in the work of the course Sigma Xi has for its chief purpose the encouragement of original research in science, and elects to membership from the senior class each year a limited number who give promise of becoming investigators in some department of science. The Order of the Coif is an honorary legal society in which membership is based on high scholarship. Phi Delta Kappa and Lambda Theta choose their members from those who have excelled in the field of professional education. Gamma Alpha is a graduate and scientific fraternity. Tau Beta Pi is the honorary society in engineering. Sigma Delta Chi and Theta Sigma Phi are the honorary journalistic societies. Delta Sigma Rho is an honorary public speaking fraternity.

Literary and Forensic.

Among the literary societies, composed of students only, are Irving Institute, the Zetagathian Society, and the Philomathean Society, which are for men, and the Erodelphian Society, Hesperian Society, Octave Thanet Society, Whitby Society, and Athena Society, which are for women. As a rule, these hold weekly meetings at which programs are presented along the line of debate, oratory, writing, and declamation. Closely allied to these in the nature of its work is the organization called the University Players. This organization usually presents at least one dramatic production during the academic year.

Professional.

There are also in the University numerous organizations of interest mainly to students in specialized fields. Examples of such groups are the John Marshall Law Society, the Middletonian Society, the Mortar and Pestle Club, the Compass Club, and the American Institute of Electrical Engineers.

In spite of the many obstacles the University of Iowa has had a steady consistent growth from an institution with one building until today the followers of "Old Gold" can truly boast of one of the largest and best universities of the middle west.

Concerning Iowa City, Iowa.

Iowa City is a pretty little city of about ten thousand inhabitants and to which the students add considerably more. Iowa City is in the east-central part of Iowa, about 180 miles east of Des Moines and 50 miles west of Davenport, Iowa. The Chicago, Rock Island and Pacific main line passes thru, as well as a branch line, and the Cedar Rapids and Iowa City Railway, an electric line. The city has a large residence section and a fair sized business district. Large trees line the streets and during most of the year Iowa City is an attractive location. The Iowa River flowing thru the city affords plenty of canoeing and some fishing. The city is well supplied with theatres, hotels and places of entertainment; so that the student may easily find pleasure in his spare moments.

HISTORY OF PETITIONING BODY.

This should give a full history of the petitioning body from its foundation, with names of officers, number of alumni, social status of the organization, its economic situation, i.e. its property, such as a house, furnishings, etc. and all information that will show the collective results of the associated efforts of the individuals composing the unit.

HISTORY OF DELTA KAPPA GAMMA

Our organization was born in the closing months of the year 1920, when the originators' dreams were fully realized. The idea found birth in the minds of a group of men who were thrown together constantly, and the fraternity spirit found its beginning in the minds of these men. They talked to about seven or eight other men on the campus asking them if they would like to help organize a local fraternity. Those who answered in the affirmative are the charter members; those few who took the chance and started the ball rolling. They are proud of their work, too.

Informal meetings began in "Close Hall" (a building on the campus in which Literary Societies hold meetings) on Monday evenings of every week. It only took three of these meetings to find that the hopes and aspirations of the group were to organize. So our first regular meeting was November 10, 1920. At this meeting we elected the following as officers; Marion G. Kellam, President; William H. DuBois, Vice-President; Reid H. Ray, Secretary; Fred E. Skinner, Treasurer; and John R. Hansen, Steward. These were the men at the wheel, to guide us across the uncertain road that we were to travel. A few days later, November 17th we signed our Constitution and the Articles of Incorporation. Fourteen men signed their names that evening, those men being: Barrett, Burrill, DuBois, Ford, Hansen, Kellam, Lacy, Lehman, McCorkle, Ray, Schultz, Shager, Skinner and Watson. (A full list of members follows later.)

From that time on we all pledged to do our best and our all for D K G. Everyone did and the meetings that followed in that little room in Close Hall were filled with plans and schemes, for the immediate and the future. The House Committee soon found that a suitable house could be rented, and then it was up to that committee to buy furniture. December 1st was nearing and in two weeks all the furniture had been bought, and on December 15th we moved into "our" house. All the rooms and dorms were supplied with the proper and necessary furniture and very comfortably so. Christmas vacation was at hand and by the time we were ready to leave for home, every man had his belongings moved in. (Including six men pledged on November 11th.) Then everyone went home for a happy vacation.

When we returned to college, January 4, 1921, everyone was ready with a spirit that would carry Delta Kappa Gamma over any obstacle we might meet. So we realized that life was very much different in our own house, where a real fraternity spirit prevailed.

At this place in our history we gave honorary membership to Mr. J. M. Knappenberger as (a term really mis-used) Faculty Advisor. Brother Knappenberger is one of the fellows, a booster, and a mighty valuable man to us. Brother "Knap" (pardon the name but that's what we call him) is a Phi Kappa Tau, and is teaching in the Liberal Arts College, and doing some Seminar work.

Thru all the setbacks and hardships we pulled thru, and now have as firm a foundation as an organization could have. We are progressing slowly but surely, picking up speed every day, so that the campus certainly knows of Delta Kapp. Our first social affair, an informal dance was held February 25th at the Burkley Hotel, forty couples being present. The second dance was held at the Pagoda Tea Shop on the evening of April 8th. Our third and final dance this season was held on May 6th, at the latter location. This is planned to be the culmination of our social activities for the year and the finis of enjoyable social times of Delta Kappa Gamma.

The above paragraphs do not in any way express the spirit and the changes that have taken place since January 4th of this year. That is a change impossible to present in writing. It is a larger brotherly spirit. That spirit of fraternity has certainly made a deep impression even in the short existence of our fraternity. We have firm establishment on the campus, plans for the future that will be fully realized, and Delta Kappa Gamma will take its place among the other fraternities for sure. Plans are fully under way for the year 1921-22.

Here is a brief review of our history:-

Nov.10, 1920--Election of officers.

INSTRUCTIONS TO CHAPTERS, Etc.

The within is a correct copy of a petition for a Charter from this Fraternity and should receive proper and prompt attention at your hands. It is prepared on official blanks furnished by the Fraternity and in accordance with the directions given the petitioners. The reports of the investigating committees, recommendations of members of faculties, other fraternities, etc. together with a finding from the G. J. P., etc., are attached.

These should be studied by every member of your Chapter to the end that he will be prepared to give proper consideration to the petition. Remember copies hereof are in the hands of your fellows in every Chapter and a prompt reply is not only due the petitioners, but also all within our own circle. Your reply should be in the form of a report under the hands and seals of your president and secretary directed to the G. J. P. and sent to him. Observe the provisions of the Fraternity Constitution in taking and reporting these votes. A majority vote of the members present decides the way in which your Chapter votes. Petitions can only be considered at regular meeting of your Chapter unless every active member is present at a special meeting called for that purpose.
