A SHORT HISTORY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

In the year 1740 there existed in the city of Philadelphia a school, created by a trust established in that year, known and designated as the "Charity School". It was from this school, established primarily as a House of Public Worship, that the present University of Pennsylvania sprang. The "Charity School" not proving a success, twenty-four public spirited citizens of Philadelphia, inspired by the publication of a pamphlet by Benjamin Franklin relating to educational conditions in their city, in 1740 founded what was known as the "Academy" and with which the "Charity School" was then combined. So successful was the undertaking that in 1753 the Trustees secured a charter incorporating "the Academy and Charitable School". Under the skillful training of the learned Rev. William Smith, the highest class in this Academy attained that proficiency which in a college course would entitle it to a degree. Accordingly, in 1755, the proprietors of Pennsylvania, Richard and William Penn, were petitioned, and a "Confirmatory Charter" granted, incorporating "The College, Academy and Charitable School". In 1765 Dr. John Morgan, the first man to hold medical professorship in this country, founded the first Medical School in America. This school is now a part of the University of Pennsylvania.

From September 1777, to June 1778, owing to the occupation of Philadelphia by British troops, recitations and lectures were suspended. In 1779, after the Revolutionary War, the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania confiscated all the rights and properties of the College, which were then bestowed upon a new organization, called in its charter, "The Trustees of the University of the State of Pennsylvania". Ten years later, these rights and properties were all restored, and in 1791 an act was passed amalgamating the old College with the new University, under the title of "The Trustees of the University of Pennsylvania". Since that time the University has grown, until now it not only comprises the College, subdivided into the School of Arts, the Summer School, and the College Course for Teachers, but also

PROSPECTS FOR A NEW CHAPTER

The prospects for a Chapter of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity at the University of Pennsylvania, as we, the petitioners see it, are extremely favorable. Our reasons for viewing the situation in this light are, -

First - The class of the fellows who are petitioning for the charter have characterized themselves as workers, heart and soul for the success of our undertakings.

Second - We expect at least eight and very probably nine of our charter members to return next year.

Third - Of the total enrollment at Pennsylvania, it is estimated that only approximately twelve per cent. of the men are fraternity men; hence, there are many good men available for our proposed Chapter.

Fourth - A Charter from the Alpha Sigma Phi would immediately place us upon an equal basis with the leading National Fraternities, and as a result we should be among the leaders in the near future.

Fifth - During an interview with our beloved Provost, Dr. Edgar F. Smith, at ~~which~~ time our plans were laid before him, he expressed hearty approval of our endeavors and assured us of any assistance we might ask at his disposal.

It is the intention, as expressed by the members when considering proposed new members, to enlarge very conservatively, and keep in mind continually the fostering of a congenial fraternity spirit, rather than the growth to a large number.

For the remainder of the present term we shall as far as possible complete plans for the coming term next fall, and familiarize our members with the mechanism of fraternity organization. Further, we are now considering a few men as probably members before the end of this term, and other very favorable prospects for entrance in the fall.

Several of our men are engaged in other college activities and are constantly thrown in contact with new men who show promise of becoming prominent along that line; and since a number of our men are upper classmen, we feel them very capable of choosing new men, of the character we prefer.

Respectfully submitted, -

W. Heywood Hovey President

Samuel O. Bile Secretary

- HISTORY OF THE ORGANIZATION -

Toward the close of November of 1913, six students of the University of Pennsylvania, who were in the habit of meeting together daily, thought it would be a good plan to form a Club to promote better fellowship among the members. It was accordingly proposed that the group take their meals at the same place. These men, together with one other, who proved congenial to every one concerned, proceeded to organize, but simply temporarily, since the idea was to later form a local fraternity. During one of the discussions concerning the requisites of such a body, it was suggested that the Club petition a National Fraternity, not already represented at Pennsylvania, for a Charter. Correspondence was entered into with the Grand Junior President of the Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity, and it was found that the standards of that Fraternity were in accord with the ideas of all interested.

After a personal interview with the Grand Junior President it was found necessary to have a larger membership before petitioning the National Body for a Charter. We therefore postponed the action, until it has now become possible to enter a petition from a Club of eleven members, all of whom have been carefully selected in accord with our ideals of fraternal relationship.

Mr. Wayne M. Musgrave,
New York City -

Dear Sir:-

The request has come to me that I express an opinion as to the probable success of a new Fraternity at Pennsylvania.

It seems to me that the situation here has not changed materially in the last few years. While the number of Fraternities here has increased, there has been a corresponding gain in the student body. There are from twenty-five to thirty percent of Fraternity men in the College, Towne Scientific School, and Wharton School, and probably ten to twenty per cent. more are available for fraternity purposes. We do not feel that the field is overcrowded and would be glad to see your Fraternity represented.

The success or failure of a new organization will depend on the efforts and character of the men themselves, rather than upon any local conditions and I feel sure the boys petitioning you will give a good account of themselves.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) Thos. P. McCutcheon, Jr.

Chairman of Committee on Non-Athletic Organizations.

ALPHA SIGMA PHI FRATERNITY

May 2, 1914

Wayne Montgomery Musgrave, Esq.,
Grand Junior President,
National Headquarters,
Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity,

Sir:-

Pursuant to your instructions of April 26th, I ~~have~~ visited Philadelphia on the 28th instant for the purpose of passing judgment upon the character of the group of Pennsylvania students who have formally petitioned for admission, as a local chapter, to our Fraternity.

I report as follows:

The entire evening was spent in conference with the eleven petitioners. The occasion was the regular weekly meeting of the group. ~~which~~ <sup>they</sup> for purposes of prosecuting their claim for recognition, have been operating as a "Comedy Club". The discussion which ~~for an hour and a half~~ touched upon all phases of proper inquiry lead to a very favorable impression of the membership of the petitioning body.

Personality of men: Not a man is unattractive personally; five men stand out because of prepossessing personal characteristics.

Composition of group: The group is quite representative of the several departments of Pennsylvania. In addition the men show much interest in social and athletic activities. One man is on the track team. Half the men enjoy rather close relationship with men on the football <sup>down to</sup> and track teams and the crew.

Program of work: (In the event of favorable action by you)
The men have worked out a definite program of action in the event of favorable action by the Fraternity. Several prospects are being strenuously followed up now and plans are being consummated which will enable them to include arrangements during the summer for a house.

General fitness of Fraternity men: The men are Fraternity material in that they have a large outlook, real capacity for fellowship, and a proper sense of fraternity obligation. I believe that recognition by them would not be ill-advised.

Other considerations which suggest the advisability of establishing a chapter at Pennsylvania, I need not pass upon.

By reason of the foregoing, I respectfully urge that your reference of their petition to the several chapters be accompanied by your favorable endorsement.

Respectfully submitted, in Alpha Sigma Phi,
